Searching The Thames A Journey From The Source To The Sea:

Searching the Thames Denis Waugh, Priscilla Waugh, 1999 Through 80 photographs by the acclaimed Denis Waugh this book traces the Thames from its source in the Gloucestershire countryside to the wide marshland skies of its estuary Each photograph is accompanied by text exploring the river's past Books Magazine, 1998 Finding-list of the Salem public library. July, 1889. [With] Salem Mass, publ. libr, 1889 From Source to Sea Tom Chesshyre, 2018-06-14 Authors artists and amblerers have always felt the pull of the Thames and now Tom Chesshyre is following in their footsteps He's walking more than 200 miles from the Cotswolds to the North Sea Seeing some familiar sights through new eyes Chesshyre explores the living present and remarkable past of England's longest and most iconic river Finding-list of the Salem Public Library Salem Public Library, 1889 Water Library Basia Irland, 2007 Water Library is a tribute to ecology expressed through art Irland's art projects explore practical ways to conserve water through rain harvesting systems how to foster dialogue and cooperation along the entire length of a river and the dangerous impact of waterborne diseases on human health By offering thought provoking information presented poetically Water Library inspires in readers a broader appreciation of water's importance in their everyday lives The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2000 First[-sixth] Supplement to the Finding List of the Salem Public Library, Salem, Mass., December 1889[-October, 1894] Salem Public Library, 1889 Travel and Tourism in Britain, 1700-1914 Vol 4 Susan Barton, Allan Brodie, 2021-12-16 The British led the way in holidaymaking This four volume primary resource collection brings together a diverse range of texts on the various forms of transport used by tourists the destinations they visited the role of entertainments and accommodation and how these affected the way that tourism evolved over two centuries Volume 4 Seaside Resorts The final volume presents case studies of four major seaside resorts Scarborough Margate Brighton and Blackpool Scarborough evolved from a spa town to a seaside resort Margate became a coastal resort from scratch and became one of the earliest sites of mass tourism Brighton had sea bathers by the 1730s and its early development followed a similar path to that of Margate but its royal connections allowed its rapid growth into a large town with high quality accommodation When the railway arrived at Blackpool in 1846 it was a large village Thirty years later it had two piers and a large hotel Its steady growth was due to the stream of working class visitors from the local hinterland of major industrial towns and cities Documenting Cityscapes Iván Villarmea Álvarez, 2015-05-12 While film studies has traditionally treated the presence of the city in film as an urban text operating inside of a cinematic one this approach has recently evolved into the study of cinema as a technology of place From this perspective Documenting Cityscapes explores the way the city has been depicted by nonfiction filmmakers since the late 1970s paying particular attention to three aesthetic tendencies documentary landscaping urban self portraits and metafilmic strategies Through the formal analysis of fifteen works from six different countries this volume investigates how the rise of subjectivity has helped to develop a kind of gaze that is closer to citizens than to the institutions and corporations responsible for recent major transformations Documenting Cityscapes therefore reveals the extent to which cinema has become an agent of urban change in which certain films not only challenge the most controversial policies of late capitalism but also are able to produce spatiality themselves

London in Cinema Charlotte Brunsdon, 2019-07-25 Charlotte Brunsdon's illuminating study explores the variety of cinematic Londons that appear in films made since 1945 Brunsdon traces the familiar ways that film makers establish that a film is set in London by use of recognisable landmarks and the city's shorthand iconography of red buses and black taxis as well as the ways in which these icons are avoided She looks at London weather fog and rain and everyday locations like the pub and the housing estate while also examining the recurring patterns of representation associated with films set in the East and West Ends of London from Spring in Park Lane 1948 to Mona Lisa 1986 and from Night and the City 1950 to From Hell 2001 Brunsdon provides a detailed analysis of a selection of films exploring their contribution to the cinematic geography of London and showing the ways in which feature films have responded to and created changing views of the city She traces London's transformation from imperial capital to global city through the different ways in which the local is imagined in films ranging from Ealing comedies to Pressure 1974 as well as through the shifting imagery of the River Thames and the Docks She addresses the role of cinematic genres such as horror and film noir in the constitution of the cinematic city as well as the recurrence of figures such as the cockney the gangster and the housewife Challenging the view that London is not a particularly cinematic city Brunsdon demonstrates that many London set films offer their own meditation on the complex relationships between the cinema and the city

Andrews,2003 The first full scale biography of Robert Gibbings with more than 400 illustrations encompassing his whole life and providing a context for his work and achievements Gibbings is often described as having been larger than life a colourful and adventurous character but he was also responsible perhaps more than anyone else for bringing the art of wood engraving to the attention of the general public This book brings together a wealth of illustrations both of Gibbing s own work and photographs recording his life many unpublished Whistler and Holland Jan Frederik Heijbroek,Margaret F.
