Season Of The Jew A Novel:

Trauma, Memory and Identity in Five Jewish Novels from the Southern Cone Debora Cordeiro Rosa, 2012-04-19 The Jewish presence in Latin America is a recent chapter in Jewish history that has produced a remarkable body of literature that gives voice to the fascinating experience of Jews in Latin American lands This book explores the complexity of Jewish identity in Latin America through the fictional Jewish characters of five novels written by Jewish authors from the Southern Cone Argentina Brazil Chile Paraguay and Uruguay It examines how trauma and memory have profound effects on shaping the identity of these Jewish characters who have to forge a new identity as they begin to interact with the Latin American societies of their newly adopted homes The first three novels present stories narrated by the first generation of immigrants who arrived in Latin American lands escaping pogroms in Russia and the increasing persecution and anti-Semitism in Europe in the decades prior to World War II The fourth novel analyses the identity conflicts experienced by a second generation Latin American born Jew who questions his Jewish questions of assimilation and integration in to his society The last novel closes this study with the existential crisis experienced by a perfectly assimilated non religious Jew who enquires about his Jewishness and compares himself to other Jews around him The Jewish Novel in the Ancient World Lawrence M. Wills, 2015-03-11 Lawrence M Wills here traces the literary evolution of popular Jewish narratives written during the period 200 BCE 100 CE In many ways these narratives were similar to Greek and Roman novels of the same era as well as to popular novels of indigenous peoples within the Roman Empire Yet as a group they demonstrated a variety of novelistic innovations the inclusion of adventurous episodes passages of description and of dialogue concern with psychological motivation and the introduction of female characters Wills focuses on five novels Greek Esther Greek Daniel Judith Tobit and Joseph and Aseneth Drawing on a wide range of theoretical works he delineates the techniques and motifs of the Jewish novel shows how the genre both initiated and distanced itself from nonfictional prose such as historical and philosophical writing discusses its relation to Greco Roman romance and describes the social conditions governing its emergence and reception Wills also places the novels in historical context situating them between the Hebrew Bible on the one hand and subsequent developments in Jewish and Christian literature on the other Wills sees the Jewish novel as a popular form of writing that provided amusement for an expanding audience of Jewish entrepreneurs merchants and bureaucrats In an important sense he maintains it was a product of the novelistic impulse the impulse to transfer oral stories to a written medium to reach a more literate audience American Jewish Year Book 2017 Arnold Dashefsky, Ira M.
