Immanuel Scott Lencke,2020-09-30 Each year society cycles back around to the all important date of December 25 This date is bookended by Thanksgiving and New Year s Day yielding a five to six week festive holiday period within American culture Yet the historic church has held to a different rhythm one that begins with the season of Advent and then moves into the twelve days of Christmas The word Advent means coming or arrival It s a time of preparation and anticipation as we head toward the celebration of Christ s birth Some of us have previously walked through the seasons of the church s calendar others perhaps not But it is a story that is deeply enriching Reflections of Immanuel invites the reader to wait for Christmas and join the church s rhythmic story of Advent As we patiently move through the season and then on to Christmas itself this little book offers fresh insights on familiar Scripture passages and themes We Live Inside a Story Megan McKenna,2010

In the realm of the Spirit and when dealing with our own souls and the souls of others we are often at a loss for words We have a sense maybe even an image of what we want to share ask or communicate but words are harder to find and express Stories are the glue that hold us together in whatever groups we belong to even if we only visit or find ourselves on the margins In a sense our God is a story being told and God is seeking for all of us to listen to enter into the story and become one Megan McKenna uses images of Russian nesting dolls to illustrate the many layers of the stories that exist in each of our lives particularly in relation to the Spirit Stories are critical to living and are intertwined with truth in such a way that we can carry them with us remember them and pass them along sharing them as needed We live inside a story We live inside God

Monastic Ecological Wisdom Samuel Torvend,2023-11-15 Can early medieval monasteries serve as a model of sustainable development and environmental conservation in today s world Inspired by Pope Francis s encyclical Laudato S and Benedictine communities around the world whose shared monastic values inform ecological practice Monastic Ecological Wisdom uncovers the hidden story of early Christian and monastic care for the earth In Monastic Ecological Wisdom Samuel Torvend shows how it is possible that medieval monastic values and practices could assist in the careful conservation of what we claim is God s first gift God s first gesture of grace the earth and all that dwells with it By reflecting on an ecological reading of New Testament texts the Rule of St Benedict and early monastic engagement with the natural world as seen in the life of St Benedict such practices can serve thoughtful Christians today who care deeply about living in harmony with the earth and all who call it home Mary on the Eve of the Second Vatican Council John C. Cavadini,Danielle M.

Peters,2017-05-15 The Blessed Virgin Mary is uniquely associated with Catholicism and the century preceding the Second Vatican Council was arguably the most fertile era for Catholic Marian studies In 1964 Pope John Paul VI published the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church or Lumen Gentium LG the eighth chapter of which presents the most comprehensive magisterial teaching on the Blessed Virgin Mary As part of its Marian Initiative the Institute for Church Life at the University of Notre Dame invited scholars to a conference held at Notre Dame in October 2013 to reflect the rich Marian legacy on the eve of the Second Vatican Council The essays unanimously stress that the Blessed Virgin Mary is not merely a peripheral figure in Christian faith and in the panorama of theology More than fifty years after Lumen Gentium students of theology as well as Marian devotees take their bearings from this document in order to promote the person of Mary and the study of Mariology as well as grow in authentic Marian piety This book will have great appeal to students and scholars of Catholic theology and history particularly those interested in Mariology Contributors Ann W Astell Peter Casarella John C Cavadini Lawrence S Cunningham Brian Daley S J Peter J Fritz Kevin Grove CSC Msgr Michael Heintz Matthew Levering Danielle M Peters James H Phalan CSC Johann G Roten S M Christopher Ruddy Troy Stefano and Thomas A Thompson S M

Choosing to Love the World Thomas Merton, 2015-11-30 Amid the noise and distractions of everyday life is it really possible to choose to love the world In these times of great uncertainty and anxiety how can we find God Thomas Merton felt the urgency of these questions more than 50 years ago and his reflections upon them are more relevant than ever One of America's most beloved mystics of the 20th century Merton's voice was prophetic in the troubled era of the 1960s In this new collection of thoughts and meditations selected from his most inspiring books and letters Merton's radiant wisdom and foresight serve as a beacon of light for all of us searching to find true meaning and solace in today's difficult times Father Louis as he was known at the Abbey of Gethsemani fully embraced the contemplative life of a monk yet he never held the world at arm's length We and our world interpenetrate It is only in assuming full responsibility for our world for our lives and for ourselves that we can be said to live really for God Sharply honest in his words but balanced by his poet's heart Merton explores themes that include the inner ground of love living in wisdom and dialoguing with silence He teaches that contemplation is possible for everyone and that the fundamental context for seeking God's presence is always our everyday lives In the deep silence wisdom begins to sing her unending sunlit inexpressible song the private song she speaks to the solitary soul In Choosing to Love the World Thomas Merton inspires us to look deep within ourselves and in the peaceful silence of contemplation to find and sing our own song Edited by Jonathan Montaldo associate director of The Merton Institute for Contemplative Living and director of Bethany Spring the Merton Institute retreat center in Trappist Kentucky
