A Long Walk in Wintertime Libby Purves, 2002-12-05 Alice McDonald has escaped all the obvious traps that lie in wait for women She loves her job but enjoys her clever spirited children too her husband Dan the New Man does his share at home and their London house is always full of friends At her thirty seventh birthday party Alice reflects that their life has been a pretty successful production so far But love can be treacherous and children are never quite what they seem Two months later far from home and alone on a desperate quest through the bleak lanes of Norfolk Alice wonders how it fell apart so quickly Were things ever as good as they seemed Had the McDonalds really been happy or was it no more than a stage illusion

A Long Walk in the Wintertime Libby Purves, 1999-12 Taleworlds and Storyrealms K. Young, 2012-12-06 Beginning is the hardest ITPment not because openers are all that scarce but because you're blowing into cracking a universe I Maurice Natanson openings are already directed toward closings The first question in presenting a body of work is where to cut in This is an especially difficult question since the cut in provides a perspective on what follows A cut is an angle of entry Wherever I enter from there a realm unfolds itself In that sense my angle of entry is my point of view A realm cut into has an orientation It evidences a hierarchy of importance relevance accessibility value or logic Its content is no longer neutral and equivalent From my perspective the realm is not only differentiated in substance but differential in significance There is a relation between angles and attitudes Where I look from is tied up with how I see The first cut opens out into a frame of reference What count as lines of evidence in that realm materialize along with its background expectancies its assumptions concentrations and confusions its cost/plogy quirks and enchantments Hence once I am committed to a perspective I am implicated in a methodology one possessed of puzzles of a certain shape ITPping toward solutions within its orthodoxy Openings are directed toward closings Another cut would open onto another realm The realm of events I cut into is a Taleworld inhabited by characters acting in their own space and time Home Leave Libby

Purves, 2003-01-20 A perceptive novel from our favourite chronicler of the dilemmas of modern family life Catherine and Caroline Toby and Mark were globetrotting siblings British diplomats whose childhood homes lay in Italy or Israel France or Washington DC wherever their father was posted at the time But all that was years ago Now Catherine is approaching middle age married to a life of cheeseparing selflessness looking after young offenders on a chilly organic farm Mark is a prime supermarket executive Caroline a wealthy Kensington wife and Toby well Toby is a problem The joker in the pack He always was Amid growing tensions marriage fatigue and unspoken resentments the apparent tragedy of Toby's disappearance jolts his sisters and brother into making angry anxious journeys from California to Flanders back in time and into their own hearts

Nature's Masterpiece Libby Purves, 2000-10-05 The family is nature's masterpiece George Santayana A compendium of practical advice and reflections on modern family life in the age of computer gaming ever younger drug and drink problems educational upheaval and concerns about the way children's freedom health and personal development are threatened by considerations of safety Libby also considers the maintenance of marriage in an age of rising divorce and stepfamilies a balanced approach to sexual threats to children and the dangers and opportunities for family life caused by dual careers teleworking and other trends in the modern workplace Each subject is treated with wit and brevity to make the book a delight to read as well as providing a fund of useful advice Gender and Rural Geography Jo Little,2017-09-29 Gender and Rural Geography explores the relationship between gender and rurality Feminist theory gender relations and sexuality have all become central concerns of geographical research and significant progress has been made in terms of our understanding of both the broad relationship between gender and geography and the more detailed differences in the lives of men and women over space The development of feminist perspectives and the study of gender relations in geography has however been fairly uneven over the discipline Both theoretical and empirical work on gender has tended to be concentrated within social and cultural geography Moreover it has been directed largely towards the urban sphere The International Who's Who of Women 2002 Elizabeth Sleeman,2001 Over 5 500 detailed biographies of the most eminent talented and distinguished women in the world today How Not to be A Perfect Family Libby Purves,2011-04-14 Perfect Families Tick off museums in the guidebook Tidy everything away neatly Work hard and play fair Show respect for one another Real Families Start fights in the Louvre Keep all their worldly goods on the stairs and in the kitchen Do their homework on the school bus and cheat at Monopoly Tie the shoelaces of sleeping uncles together after Christmas dinner With her customary humour and reliably robust commonsense Libby Purves celebrates family life in all its aspects Her accounts of sibling rivalry and the pitfalls of family Christmas will provoke rueful laughter and strike chords of recognition her practical tips on dealing with everything from marriage maintenance to money matters testing times to trips and treats provide essential help for the hard pressed parent Best of all is her reassuring reminder that no one else has a perfect family either The Origin of the Milky Way and Other Living Stories of the Cherokee Barbara R. Duncan,2008-11-01 Cherokee people have lived in the Great Smoky Mountains for thousands of years During all this time they have told stories to each other to explain how things came to be to pass on lessons about life and to describe the mountains animals plants and spirits around them The Origin of the Milky Way and Other Living Stories of the Cherokee collects 27 stories that are great for kids and are still being told by storytellers today Presented by members of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians in their own words the stories appear in free verse form like poems on the page so that if you read them aloud you can hear the rhythm of the stories as they were originally told Barbara R Duncan provides a helpful introduction that describes Cherokee people s past and present ways of life and their storytelling traditions The book also includes a glossary of key words from the stories suggestions for further reading and notes on the storytellers For young readers for parents to read aloud to young listeners and for teachers and libraries The Origin of the Milky Way provides an excellent introduction to Cherokee culture For readers age 9 and up Storytellers Davy Arch Robert Bushyhead Edna Chekelelee Marie Junaluska Kathi Littlejohn Freeman Owle E'kalb

Hollow Sheila D. Hairston,2023-03-30 At the height of Jim Crow laws E kalb Hollow is a small African American town located deep in the woods of Southern Virginia and home to the resilient Braxton family Unending hurts pain and devastation shattered the lives of this family time and time again Despite the fact that bigotry and racism rocked their world neither had the power to destroy their self respect As with any devastating circumstances time is the antidote for healing In the long run the Braxtons learned to mend their broken spirits by weeding out offenses and treasuring happy times and precious memories

The Weavers of Trautenau Janine Holc,2023-10-16 A sympathetic history that focuses on the experiences of women and girls during the Holocaust and draws on new archival sources Beginning in late 1940 over three thousand Jewish girls and young women were forced from their family homes in Sosnowiec Poland and its surrounding towns to worksites in Germany Believing that they were helping their families to survive these young people were thrust into a world where they labored at textile work for twelve hours a day lived in barracks with little food and received only periodic news of events back home By late 1943 their barracks had been transformed into concentration camps where they were held until liberation in 1945 Using a fresh approach to testimony collections Janine P Holc reconstructs the forced labor experiences of young Jewish females as told by the women who survived and shared their testimony Incorporating new source material the book carefully constructs survivors stories while also taking a theoretical approach one alert to socially constructed intersectional systems of exploitation and harm The Weavers of Trautenau elucidates the limits and possibilities of social relations inside camps and the challenges of moral and emotional repair in the face of indescribable loss during the Holocaust

The Void Warren A. Pae,2006-05-22 This story is an episodic adventure of a little boy into manhood Through these pages his lifelong journey to fulfill the unexplainable empty space inside of him is revealed Always feeling he was different somehow this deeply routed seed continued to grow When would it end How would it end He didn t know

New Stories from the Midwest Jason L. Brown,Shanie Latham,2013-03-22 New Stories from the Midwest presents a collection of stories that celebrate an American region too often ignored in discussions about distinctive regional literature The editors solicited nominations from more than 300 magazines literary journals and small presses and narrowed the selection to 19 authors The stories written by Midwestern writers or focusing on the Midwest demonstrate that the quality of fiction from and about the heart of the country rivals that of any other region Guest editor John McNally introduces the anthology which features short fiction by Charles Baxter Dan Chaon Christopher Mohar Rebecca Makkai Lee Martin and others
