The Long White Cloud William Pember Reeves, 2015-08-08 Excerpt from The Long White Cloud Ao Tea Roa I believe that there is amongst the people of the Mother Country a minority now ceasing to be small which takes a quickening interest in the Colonies It no longer consists merely of would be investors or emigrants who want to inquire into the resources industries and finances of one or other of the self governing parts of the Empire Many of its members never expect to see a colony But they have come to recognise that those new comers into the circle of civilized communities the daughter nations of Britain are not unworthy of English study and English pride They have begun to suspect that the story of their struggles into existence and prosperity may be stirring romantic and interesting and that some of their political institutions and experiments may be instructive though others may seem less safe than curious About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
