Hamilton,2017-05-31 These twenty two meditations on the songs prayers and stories of the Bible invite readers to imagine themselves as part of a world in which human beings may fully live into their sufferings and joys as part of a vibrant while still critically searching faith in God Here we see prophets and poets as well as ordinary men and women embrace the realities of life without apology or fear Each meditation opens with the author s fresh translation of the biblical text and concludes with a prayer that seeks the critical edge of faith as an active stance toward human existence The movement from text to commentary to prayer reflects a basic conviction that the encounter with the Bible allows persons of many cultures whether believers or unbelievers to engage the deepest layers of human existence today These reflections come out of the author s search across cultures to find a common humanity before God Since the Bible is a non Western book in its origins and much of its present life interpretation of that book can both confront the particularities of Western Christianity with its own limitations and offer sources of renewal for communal and individual spirituality These reflections aim to contribute to that larger end Ski ,2000-12 The Work Connection J. Stewart,Chris Grover,2001-12-20 The authors use regulation to explain the antecedents to current welfare developments in Britain From discussion of the Speenhamland System the struggle for Family Allowance and a National Minimum Wage they show how first a Conservative government in the 1970s and more recently New Labour have used in work benefits so that today they have become the preferred instrument of intervention in the labour market for setting wages The authors discuss the ways in which these measures the new deals for lone parents and young people and the working family tax credit address issues of child poverty and the adequacy of incomes and how far they are disciplining devices to encourage a new moral order supportive of family life
