Doom, Desire and the Polis in Eugene O'Neill's Drama Adel Bahroun, 2023-01-24 This book shows that Eugene O Neill s modern American drama is a survey on the politics of desire the power of doom and the variable configurations of the polis It highlights that the modern American city or polis is the stage on which the antithetic categories of doom and desire are re enacted in different undertones The text notes that desire doom schizophrenia and the archeology of the polis are reconceived by the playwright while legacy sexuality lucre and the volatility of the free flow of capital entrap the American subject in a maze of qualms and queries Subjection and resistance give birth to schizorevolutionary subjects seeking lines of flight Indeed as noted here O Neill s plays portray their protagonists as desiring machines trying to evade the modern closed circles of power and various modes of becoming to use Gilles Deleuze s concept O Neill encounters Deleuze at the level of thoughts and sensations anticipating postmodern plateaus for the human subject to grow into a rhizome

The Sacred Writings of St. John of Damascus John of Damascus, Concerning the Orthodox Faith the third book of the Fountain of Wisdom is the most important of John Damascene's writings and one of the most notable works of Christian antiquity Its authority has always been great among the theologians of the East and West Here again the author modestly disavows any claim of originality any purpose to essay a new exposition of doctrinal truth He assigns himself the less pretentious task of collecting in a single work the opinions of the ancient writers scattered through many volumes and of systematizing and connecting them in a logical whole It is no small credit to John of Damascus that he was able to give to the Church in the eighth century its first summary of connected theological opinions At the command of Eugenius III it was rendered into Latin by Burgundio of Pisa in 1150 shortly before Peter Lombard's Book of Sentences appeared This translation was used by Peter Lombard and St Thomas Aquinas as well as by other theologians till the Humanists rejected it for a more elegant one The author follows the same order as does Theodoret of Cyrus in his Epitome of Christian Doctrine But while he imitates the general plan of Theodoret he does not make use of his method He quotes not only from the pages of Holy Writ but also from the writings of the Fathers As a result his work is an inexhaustible thesaurus of tradition which became the standard for the great Scholastics who followed In particular he draws generously from Gregory of Nazianzus whose works he seems to have absorbed from Basil Gregory of Nyssa Cyril of Alexandria Leo the Great Athanasius John Chrysostom and Epiphanius The work is divided into four books      Religions of Mission Fields as Viewed by Protestant Missionaries ... ,1905      Buddhism in Southern Asia Josiah Nelson Cushing,1905      How to Remain Ever Free M.
