Longman Companion To 20th Century Literature:

Longman Companion to Twentieth Century Literature Alfred Charles Ward, 1975-01-01 The Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction John Sutherland, 2014-10-13 With over 900 biographical entries more than 600 novels synopsized and a wealth of background material on the publishers reviewers and readers of the age the Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction is the fullest account of the period's fiction ever published Now in a second edition the book has been revised and a generous selection of images have been chosen to illustrate various aspects of Victorian publishing writing and reading life Organised alphabetically the information provided will be a boon to students researchers and all lovers of reading The entries though concise meet the high standards demanded by modern scholarship The writing marked by Sutherland's characteristic combination of flair clarity and erudition is of such a high standard that the book is a joy to read as well as a definitive work of reference Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young s novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel A Richard Wright Bibliography Kenneth Kinnamon, Joseph Benson, Michel Fabre, Craig Werner, 1988-01-13 Any future biographical work on Richard Wright will find this bibliography a necessity academic or public libraries supporting a program of black culture will find it invaluable and it belongs in any library supporting American literature studies Richard Wright has truly been well served Choice The most comprehensive bibliography ever compiled for an American writer this book contains 13 117 annotated items pertaining to Richard Wright It includes almost all published mentions of the author or his work in every language in which those mentions appear Sources listed include books articles reviews notes news items publishers catalogs promotional materials book jackets dissertations and theses encyclopedias biographical dictionaries handbooks and study guides library reports best seller charts the Index Translationum playbills and advertisements editorials radio transcripts and published letters and interviews The bibliography is arranged chronologically by year Each entry includes bibliographical information an annotation by the authors and information about all reprintings partial or full The index is unusually complete and contains the titles of Wright's works real and fictional characters in the works entries relating to significant places and events in the author's life important literary terminology and much additional information William Golding Jack I. Biles, Robert O. Evans, 2021-09-15 In William Golding Some Critical Considerations fourteen scholars assess various aspects of the Nobel Prize winning author's writings Their essays include criticism of individual works discussion of major themes and technical considerations and bibliographical studies Separately the essays help us understand the intricacies and impact of Golding's art together they Cultural Calendar of the 20th Century Edward Lucie-Smith, 1979 The extraordinary show the breadth of his purpose pace of events in the twentieth century has been contusing as well as exciting This is particularly so in the arts where even the accepted definition of a work of art has often broken down completely while the numerous styles and isms in literature drama music the visual arts cinema and other disciplines have been invented and discarded in quick succession This book is a chronology of change it sets the immense variety of twentieth century cultural activity year by year against the background of world events It does so not only through a succinct and authoritative narrative but also by taking each year in turn and presenting a list of the major works in each art form created during that year This is set against a concurrent general events of political social or cultural significance Each year is also individually illustrated the pictures having been carefully selected Twentieth-Century Suspense Clive so that they evoke the styles and contrasts of the time book jacket Bloom, 1990-05-01 This series aims to bring to academics students and general readers the best contemporary criticism on neglected literary and cultural areas This volume contains 17 critical essays on influential suspense writers of the 20th A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J.
