Look Who's Reading! ,1995      El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005      The Cumulative Book Index ,1996
A world list of books in the English language      Collections for Young Scholars Level C Phonics Minibooks ,1998      The Empire of the Text Christopher Leigh Connery,1998 This unique study argues that in the Qin Han period there arose in China a regime of textual authority_one that overlapped but did not coincide with imperial authority Drawing on a wide range of research and theory Connery makes an original contribution to the analysis of early imperial elite culture particularly in the fields of literature and linguistics intellectual and institutional history The author provides new contexts for thinking about canonization and textual transmission systems an innovative framework for analysis and discussion of the early imperial elite a socio ideological exploration of one strand of late Han Confucian thought and a critique of the concepts of subjectivity and the birth of lyricism in China      The Limits of Literary Historicism Allen Dunn,Thomas Haddox,2012-02-28 The Limits of Literary Historicism is a collection of essays arguing that historicism which has come to dominate the professional study of literature in recent decades has become ossified By drawing attention to the limits of historicism its blind spots overreach and reluctance to acknowledge its commitments this provocative new book seeks a clearer understanding of what historicism can and cannot teach us about literary narrative Editors Allen Dunn and Thomas F Haddox have gathered contributions from leading scholars that challenge the dominance of contemporary historicism These pieces critique historicism as it is generally practiced propose alternative historicist models that transcend mere formula and suggest alternatives to historicism altogether The volume begins with the editors extended introduction The Enigma of Critical Distance or Why Historicists Need Convictions and then is divided into three sections The Limits of Historicism Engagements with History and Alternatives to History Defying convention The Limits of Literary Historicism shakes up established modes to move beyond the claustrophobic analyses of contemporary historicism and to ask larger questions that envision more fulfilling and more responsible possibilities in the practice of literary scholarship      Look Who's Reading! ,1995      Upbeat David Amram,2015-12-22 David Amram composer jazz artist conductor and world music pioneer has been described by the Boston Globe as the Renaissance man of American music From early collaborations with Kerouac and Sinatra chosen by Leonard Bernstein as the New York Philharmonic s first composer in residence Amram s artistry has taken him from concerts with Willie Nelson to jamming with the Massai tribe of Kenya In Upbeat Nine Lives of a Musical Cat Amram recounts his extraordinary adventures in the many worlds of music he calls home all told in a rollicking anecdotal style that makes you feel that you are at home around the world He writes Everywhere I have been in the world music transcends politics As musicians we were able to go beyond all that and just be fellow human beings Threading through Amram s tale of music hard work respect and friendship are unforgettable stories of fellow great artists Dizzie Gillespie Hunter S Thompson Janet Gaynor George Plimpton Lyle Lovett Zoe Caldwell Willie Nelson and many more      Alumni

Bulletin of the University of Virginia University of Virginia, 1894      Reminiscences of a Nonagenarian Sarah Smith Emery, 1879      The Alumni Bulletin of the University of Virginia, 1894      Women and Literacy Beth Daniell, Peter Mortensen, 2020-08-17 Path breaking research on women and literacy in the past decade established conventions and advanced innovative methods that push the making of knowledge into new spheres of inquiry Taking these accomplishments as a point of departure this volume emphasizes the diversity of approaches and subjects that characterizes the next generation of research on women and literacy It builds on and critiques scholarship in literacy studies composition studies rhetorical theory gender studies postcolonial theory and cultural studies to open new venues for future research Contributors discuss what literacy is more precisely what literacies are but their strongest interest is in documenting and theorizing women s lived experience of these literacies with particular attention to the diversity of women s literacies within the U S including but not limited to the varying relations that exist among women literacy economic position class race sexuality and education relations among women literacy and economic contexts in the U S and abroad including but not limited to changes in women s private and domestic literacies the evolution of technologies of literacy and women s experience of the commodification of literacies and emergent roles of women and literacy in a globally interdependent world This broad significant work is a must read for researchers and graduate students across the fields of literacy studies composition studies rhetorical theory and gender studies      Creating Equitable Services for the Gifted: Protocols for Identification, Implementation, and Evaluation Nyberg, Julia L., Manzone, Jessica A., 2021-11-12 Given the importance of the development of intellectualism and the need to ensure equity and access to learning experiences educators at all levels must be aware of research based protocols to identify serve and evaluate programs for diverse gifted learners It is essential to understand how gifted education can increase equity in identification practices for historically underrepresented groups what the specific curricular opportunities are that must be provided to learners to develop gifted programs and what the key considerations are to the design and implementation of authentic and equitable programs for gifted learners Creating Equitable Services for the Gifted Protocols for Identification Implementation and Evaluation curates cutting edge protocols in the field of gifted education related to the areas of equitable identification implementation of services and programmatic assessment These protocols seek to initiate discussion and critical discourse regarding diverse gifted learners among higher education faculty state department personnel district administrators and classroom teachers Covering topics such as digital differentiation equitable assessment and STEM education this text is ideal for teacher education programs preparation programs university degree programs university credential programs certificate programs faculty graduate students state departments of education superintendents coordinators administrators teachers professors academicians and researchers      God the Trinity Malcolm B. Yarnell, 2016-04-15 Is the Trinity biblical Is it necessary to affirm God as three persons in one being Despite a renewed interest in the Trinity in recent years many Christians including most evangelicals either relegate the Son of God to creaturely status or repudiate the personhood of the Holy Spirit In addition numerous scholars affirm that the doctrine of the Trinity is not clearly revealed in Scripture Is the Trinity merely a philosophical construction or is it essential to orthodox Christianity Drawing on hermeneutics and biblical and historical theology Malcolm Yarnell crafts a careful and clear response to these issues through exegesis of pivotal texts from both testaments He meticulously examines the foundational Hebrew confession known as the Shema Matthew s great commission the divine relations in the Gospel of John Paul s Corinthian benediction the opening hymn of Ephesians and the throne room vision of the Apocalypse Also considered are the relationships of language to revelation and history to metaphysics along with recent appeals to recover patristic exegesis and the Christian imagination He also challenges the reader to discern the implications of the Trinity for personal salvation as well as corporate worship

Qualitative Research in Criminology Jody Miller, Wilson R. Palacios, 2015-08-31 This volume investigates the significant role qualitative research plays in expanding and refining our understandings of crime and justice It features seventeen original essays that discuss the relationship between methodology and theory The result is a theoretically engaged volume that explores the approaches of qualitative scholars in the collection and treatment of data in criminological scholarship Among the key issues addressed in the volume are methodological rigor in qualitative research movement between method theory building theoretical refinement and expansion diversity of qualitative methodologies from classic field research to contemporary innovations and considerations of the future of qualitative criminological research Qualitative research use has expanded rapidly in the last twenty years This latest volume of Advances in Criminological Theory presents a cogent appraisal of qualitative criminology and the ways in which rigorous qualitative research contributes to theorizing about crime and justice

Critical Thinking on Youth Participatory Action Research Thomas Albright, Gretchen Brion-Meisels, 2024-08-16 This book draws together insights on the past present and future of youth participatory action research YPAR through interviews with ten scholars whose work has been central to the field In this critical moment it allows readers to hear from scholars who have been foundational to the visioning and enacting of YPAR projects as they reflect on the fundamental tenets and boundaries of their work By engaging directly with leaders in the field the book allows readers to explore many of the nuances roots and tensions of youth participatory action research Throughout their conversations with scholars Albright and Brion Meisels pose three questions What is the purpose of YPAR and how does it get defined What makes for authentic participation both on the research team itself and in the process of the research And how if at all does YPAR investigate and seek to dismantle existing power structures within schools and communities In taking an intentionally dialectical approach this volume builds on the centrality of dialogue in PAR YPAR processes both in terms of pedagogy mode and in terms of content matter By sharing direct excerpts of conversations readers can participate in the co construction of knowledge and gain more nuanced understandings of how purpose participation and power have shaped the foundations of YPAR and how they might shape future collaborations Elucidating the knowledge and perspective of leading YPAR practitioners this timely book will be crucial reading on Research Methods and Education for Participatory Action Research programs and related courses

Teaching Durkheim Terry F. Godlove, 2005 Emile Durkheim's work on religion occupies a central place in religious studies classrooms today This volume is designed as a resource for teachers offering practical advice about productive ways to approach central texts and difficult pedagogical issues
