the want by illuminating its outline Perhaps the speaker of these poems wants most of all to be seen despite her reflex to deflect when she discloses a shame or trauma often by depositing the self revelation within rapid teeming strings of thought Yet as much as this speaker may be an introvert in life Every time someone says my name it surprises me Because I am lonely I am always shying away from the mirror Today I woke up feeling like an already said thing many of her utterances are exuberantly uninhibited Small trees live inside me Lauren Abunassar admits passingly in one poem And in another When I dream of myself my mouth blooms many hands They reach in all shapes and directions
