Look Who's Watching, Revised Edition Fen Osler Hampson, Eric Jardine, 2017-11-08 The Internet ecosystem is held together by a surprisingly intangible glue trust To meet its full potential users need to trust that the Internet works reliably and efficiently when providing them with the information they are seeking while also being secure private and safe When trust in the Internet wanes the network's stock of digital social capital falls and users begin to alter their online behaviour These often subtle changes in behaviour tend to be collectively highly maladaptive hindering the economic developmental and innovative potential of the globe spanning network of networks Look Who's Watching Surveillance Treachery and Trust Online confirms in vivid detail that the trust placed by users in the Internet is increasingly misplaced Edward Snowden's revelations that the United States National Security Agency and other government agencies are spying on Internet users the proliferation of cybercrime and the growing commodification of user data and regulatory changes which threaten to fragment the system are all rapidly eroding the confidence users have in the Internet ecosystem Based on a combination of illustrative anecdotal evidence and analysis of new survey data Look Who's Watching clearly demonstrates why trust matters how it is being eroded and how with care and deliberate policy action the essential glue of the Internet can be restored What does "Flipflops" have to do with a "Wedgie"? John Angus Jacobs,

Health for Native Life ,2010 Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 The award winning highly acclaimed Artificial

Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice. In recent decades the art gallery and the museum have become a place for participatory art where an audience is encouraged to take part in the artwork. This has been heralded as a revolutionary practice that can promote new emancipatory social relations. What is it really? In this fully updated edition Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic. This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada, the Situationist International, Happenings in Eastern Europe, Argentina and Paris in the 1970s, the Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group. It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn, Tania Bruguera, Pawel Althamer and Paul Chan. Bishop challenges the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art, this practice. She not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks. In response, Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism. FCC Record United States.
