Looking at the Renaissance Charles R. Mack, 2005 Charles Mack examines the evolving context of Renaissance art while offering fresh insight into the meaning of the Renaissance Looking at the Renaissance Charles R. Mack, 2005 Charles Mack examines the evolving context of Renaissance art while offering fresh insight into the meaning of the The Urban Archetypes of Jane Jacobs and Ebenezer Howard Abraham Akkerman, 2020-01-09 Ebenezer Howard an Englishman and Jane Jacobs a naturalized Canadian personify the twentieth century s opposing outlooks on cities Howard had envisaged small towns newly built from scratch fashioned on single family homes with small gardens Jacobs embraced existing inner city neighbourhoods emphasizing the verve of the living street From Howard's idea the American Dream of garden suburbs had emerged yet his conceptualization of a modern city received criticism for being uniform and alienated from the rest of the city Similarly at the turn of the new century Jacobs inner city neighbourhoods came to be recognized as the result of commodification vacillating between poverty and newly discovered hubs of urban authenticity Presenting Howard and Jacobs within a psychocultural context The Urban Archetypes of Jane Jacobs and Ebenezer Howard addresses our urban crisis in the recognition that city form is a gendered allegorical medium expressing femininity and masculinity within two founding features of the built environment void and volume Both founding contrasts bring tensions but also the opportunities of fusion between pairs of urban polarities human scale against superscale gait against speed and spontaneity against surveillance Jacobs and Howard in their respective attitudes have come to embrace the two ancient archetypes the Garden and the Citadel leaving it to future generations to blend their two contrarian stances Rethinking the High Renaissance Jill Burke, 2017-07-05 The perception that the early sixteenth century saw a culmination of the Renaissance classical revival only to degrade into mannerism shortly after Raphael's death in 1520 has been extremely tenacious but many scholars agree that this tidy narrative is deeply problematic Exploring how we can reconceptualize the High Renaissance in a way that reflects how we research and teach today this volume complicates and deepens our understanding of artistic change Focusing on Rome the paradigmatic centre of the High Renaissance narrative each essay presents a case study of a particular aspect of the culture of the city in the early sixteenth century including new analyses of Raphael's stanze Michelangelo's Sistine Ceiling and the architectural designs of Bramante The contributors question notions of periodization reconsider the Renaissance relationship with classical antiquity and ultimately reconfigure our understanding of high Renaissance style Unbuilt Utopian Cities 1460 to 1900: Reconstructing their Architecture and Political Philosophy Tessa Morrison, 2016-03-09 Bringing together ten utopian works that mark important points in the history and an evolution in social and political philosophies this book not only reflects on the texts and their political philosophy and implications but also their architecture and how that architecture informs the political philosophy or social agenda that the author intended Each of the ten authors expressed their theory through concepts of community and utopian architecture but each featured an architectural solution at the centre of their social and political philosophy as none of the cities were ever built they have remained as utopian literature Some of the works examined are very well known such as Tommaso Campanella s Civitas Solis while others such as Joseph Michael Gandy s Designs for Cottages are relatively obscure However even with the best known works this volume offers new insights by focusing on the architecture of the cities and how that architecture represents the author's political philosophy It reconstructs the cities through a 3 D computer program ArchiCAD using Artlantis to render Plans sections elevations and perspectives are presented for each of the cities The ten cities are Filarete Sforzina Albrecht D rer Fortified Utopia Tommaso Campanella The City of the Sun Johann Valentin Andreae Christianopolis Joseph Michael Gandy An Agricultural Village Robert Owen Villages of Unity and Cooperation James Silk Buckingham Victoria Robert Pemberton Queen Victoria Town King Camp Gillette Metropolis and Bradford Peck The World a Department Store Each chapter considers the work in conjunction with contemporary thought the political philosophy and the reconstruction of the city Although these ten cities represent over 500 years of utopian and political thought they are an interlinked thread that had been drawn from literature of the past and informed by contemporary thought and society The book is structured in two parts European Perceptions of Islam and America from Saladin to George W. Bush P. O'Brien, 2008-12-22 This book considers European perceptions of their rivals throughout history from the Islamic civilization between the first Crusade in 1095 and the final Ottoman siege of Vienna in 1683 to the United States of America from independence in 1776 until the present and investigates Europe s capacity to lead the world Women Writers and the Reception of Ancient Egypt, 1840-1910 Molly Youngkin, 2016-04-29 Focusing on British women writers knowledge of ancient Egypt Youngkin shows the oftentimes limited but pervasive representations of ancient Egyptian women in their written and visual works Images of Hathor Isis and Cleopatra influenced how British writers such as George Eliot and Edith Cooper came to represent female emancipation Explorations in Renaissance Culture, 2008

Carman, 2016-04-22 Providing a fresh evaluation of Alberti s text On Painting 1435 along with comparisons to various works of Nicholas Cusanus particularly his Vision of God 1450 this study reveals a shared epistemology of vision And the author argues it is one that reflects a more deeply Christian Neoplatonic ideal than is typically accorded Alberti Whether regarding his purpose in teaching the use of a geometric single point perspective system or more broadly in rendering forms naturalistically the emphasis leans toward the ideal of Renaissance art as highly rational There remains the impression that the principle aim of the painter is to create objective even illusionistic images A close reading of Alberti s text however including some adjustments in translation points rather towards an emphasis on discerning the spiritual in the material Alberti's use of the tropes Minerva and Narcissus for example indicates the opposing characteristics of wisdom and sense certainty that function dialectically to foster the traditional importance of seeing with the eye of the intellect rather than merely with physical eyes In this sense these figures also set the context for his and as the author explains Brunelleschi's earlier invention of this perspective system that posits not so much an objective seeing as an opposition of finite and infinite seeing which moreover approximates Cusanus s famous notion of a coincidence of opposites Together with Alberti s and Cusanus s ideals of vision extensive analysis of art works discloses a ubiquitous commitment to stimulating an intellectual perception of divine essential and unseen realities that enliven the visible material world CAA News .2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006

Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2007 Cahiers de civilisation médiévale ,2005 Towards a Dialogical History of Modern Architecture Jorge Francisco Liernur,2024-07-15 The book challenges three perspectives on the modern architectural canon explanations that disregard impacts and effects beyond the North Atlantic monologic superficial modifications that simply add Other figures to the canon and views that reject the canon itself Instead it recognizes the canon s significance in comprehending architecture while seeking to uncover its presumed Western centric integrity through a shift from a monological to a dialogical approach This approach integrates concepts of identity and Otherness as dialectically articulated and mutually interrelated In essence the book s main thesis contends that the canon s historiographic construction overlooked the existence of Otherness specifically neglecting the world beyond the North Atlantic nucleus of the West By examining a global context to comprehend the canon formation the book proposes a more accurate understanding of the history of modern architecture Recognizing that this task cannot emanate from a single hegemonic center it presents the prospect of a coral type architectural history This narrative should and could encompass voices from diverse cultures to explore the particular circumstances of the world intertwined with each piece or figure transiently integrated into that canon As a result the ideal readers of this book position themselves within multiple settings keen on engaging in a critical global conversation about modern architectural discourse It will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history and cultural studies
