China's India War, 1962: Looking Back to See the Future Air Commodore Jasjit Singh, 2013-03-15 A potential competition exists between India and China and there is also no doubt that China started the war Highlighting the mistakes made by India rather than empirically analysing the available data can be regarded as the primary causes for the confusion that exists today Though complete details and evidence of the developments are available and documented few of us have attempted to draw up a pragmatic and realist analysis The consequences of that war have yet to die down entirely and are frequently raked up with issues on recent developments which are not widely dissimilar to those of 1962 China is a complex country To understand this rapidly progressing nation is even more difficult There are many perceptions on this country and many of them are formed on account of some international events and China s growing assertiveness It may be far fetched to expect for a paradigm change in stance and motive which could give China an uncertain negotiating position This edited volume provides the reader an excellent blend of the historical run up to the aberration the military developments and consequences It is also provides useful material to understand the geographical boundary issues between India and China and developing Chinese strategies both on the political and military front

MacDonald,Kate Polak,2024-09-16 If you woke to realize that you could rewrite your yesterday without knowing the kind of tomorrow it would grant you would you do it Are the authors of our destiny working with an outline or spit balling confusing plotlines Since the past changes possible futures to what alighting butterfly should we pay the most heed This book explores the liminal space between speculative fiction and the historical novel Staged as a transnational multicultural conversation it takes up a call originally made by Fredric Jameson in Archaeologies of the Future wherein he describes that flashpoint between speculative and historical genres as the symptom of a mutation in our relationship to historical time itself Drawing together postcolonial feminist cultural Indigenous and cognitive approaches

Science Fiction and the Historical Novel asks what the past can offer a future oriented world and how the future can be imagined in relation to a past that seeks narratives of inevitability rather than possibility Engaged with the idea of the past as a model for the future authors in this volume probe the extent to which historical scripts delimit possibilities and how authors engaged with the practice of alternative pasts rewrite potentialities in the present Future Grace, Revised Edition John Piper, 2012-09-18 Explore this stunning quality of God's grace It never ends In this revision of a foundational work John Piper reveals how grace is not only God's undeserved gift to us in the past but also God's power to make good happen for us today tomorrow and forever True life for the follower of Jesus really is a moment by moment trust that God is dependable and fulfills his promises This is living by faith in future grace which provides God's mercy provision and wisdom everything we need to accomplish his good plans for us In Future Grace chapter by chapter one for each day of the month Piper reveals how cherishing the promises of God helps break the power of persistent sin issues like anxiety despondency greed lust bitterness impatience pride misplaced shame and more Ultimate joy peace and hope in life and death are found in a confident continual awareness of the reality of future grace Looking Back, Moving Forward Girish Daswani, 2015-02-26 How do Ghanaian Pentecostals resolve the contradictions of their own faith while remaining faithful to their religious identity Bringing together the anthropology of Christianity and the anthropology of ethics Girish Daswani's Looking Back Moving Forward investigates the compromises with the past that members of Ghana's Church of Pentecost make in order to remain committed Christians Even as church members embrace the break with the past that comes from being born again many are less concerned with the boundaries of Christian practice than with interpersonal questions the continuity of suffering after conversion the causes of unhealthy relationships the changes brought about by migration and how to deal with them By paying ethnographic attention to the embodied practices interpersonal relationships and moments of self reflection in the lives of members of the Church of Pentecost in Ghana and amongst the Ghanaian diaspora in London Looking Back Moving Forward explores ethical practice as it emerges out of the questions that church members and other Ghanaian Pentecostals ask themselves NEP

Freedom and Time Jed Rubenfeld, 2008-10-01 Should we try to live in the present Such is the imperative of modernity Jed Rubenfeld writes in this important and original work of political theory Since Jefferson proclaimed that the earth belongs to the living since Freud announced that mental health requires people to get free of their past since Nietzsche declared that the happy man is the man who leaps into the moment modernity has directed its inhabitants to live in the present as if there alone could they find happiness authenticity and above all freedom But this imperative Rubenfeld argues rests on a profoundly inadequate deforming picture of the relationship between freedom and time Instead Rubenfeld suggests human freedom human being itself necessarily extends into both past and future self government consists of giving our lives meaning and purpose over time From this conception of self government Rubenfeld derives a new theory of constitutional law s place in democracy Democracy he writes is not a matter of governance by the present will of the people it is a matter of a nation s laying down and living up to enduring political and legal commitments Constitutionalism is not counter to democracy as many believe or a pre condition of democracy it is or should be democracy itself over time On this basis Rubenfeld offers a new understanding of constitutional interpretation and of the fundamental right of privacy
