Louis Stettner's New York:

Louis Stettner Louis Stettner, 1993 Louis Stettner's New York, 1950s-1990s, 1996 Renowned photographer Louis Stettner depicts the ever evolving city of New York in a fascinating collection of pictures ranging from the 1950s through the 1990s to the present 100 duotone photographs Penn Station, New York Louis Stettner, Adam Gopnik, 2015-11-24 A poetic look at Penn Station from Louis Stettner one of the masters of street photography published in book form for the first time Louis Stettner is one of the last living members of the avant garde New York School of photography of the 1950s which challenged many of the long accepted foundations of art form His Penn Station series of the late 1950s represents some of his most important work gathered here in a single form for the first time The series is less a portrait of the building than a study of people at once in transit and in suspension The pivotal moment for Stettner occurred in 1957 the year before he began the series in earnest He had taken a photograph of a girl in a party dress stepping from one circular patch of sunlight to another across the vast floor of Penn station away from the photographer into the shadowy distance A year later Stettner felt compelled to return and create the series but he found the photographs not newsworthy enough to publish With time and distance their significance has been recognized and the series is now considered a major work of art Louis Stettner Clément Chéroux, 2019-03-19 Over nearly eight decades Louis Stettner 1922 2016 defined a singular poetic vision in photography honing a style influenced by both American street photography and French humanism Stettner began working in the 1930s becoming a member of the Photo League in New York and befriending Lisette Model Paul Strand and Weegee After serving in the U S Army as a combat photographer he moved to Paris in 1947 where he met the influential street photographer Brassa The following decades were the most important in his career as he traveled back and forth between Paris and New York and found inspiration in that geographical duality Published to celebrate a major acquisition of Stettner's prints by the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art this beautiful volume presents iconic photographs from the entirety of Stettner's career along with 19 essays about photography written by Stettner himself originally published in the iconic magazine Camera 35 from 1971 to 1979 as well as a transcription of Stettner's fundamental lecture Photography Style Reality delivered at the International Center of Photography in 2002 Wisdom Cries Out in the Streets Louis Stettner, 1999 Retrospective of photographs taken from the late 1940s to the late 1990s Louis Stettner Sally Martin Katz, David Campany, Karl Orend, James Iffland, 2024-07-18 An authoritative full career retrospective of Louis Stettner the great twentieth century American photographer reproducing his finest works in one stunning volume Louis Stettner Louis Stettner, 1992 Louis Stettner Louis Stettner, 1979 Louis Stettner (Photofile) Virginie Chardin, 2025-09-17 The perfect primer on American photographer Louis Stettner Brooklyn born Louis Stettner 1922 2016 first took up a camera as a teenager and went on to establish an extraordinary career that lasted almost eighty years After photographing life on the streets of New York he joined the famous Photo League and befriended Sid Grossman and Weegee

In the Second World War he served as a combat photographer and the fight against fascism strengthened his faith in Marxism and the working class Living between New York and Paris he amassed a huge body of work that combined elements of New York street photography with lyrical humanism in the French style His subjects were many and varied passengers on the subway and tourists in the streets Spanish fishermen and American beatniks protests and demonstrations landscapes and trees But no matter where he found himself he looked for beauty in the everyday and never lost his fundamental compassion and solidarity with ordinary people
