Resistance Shane Moran,2021-04-19 In Resistance Sol Plaatje and South Africa Shane Moran studies Sol Plaatje the founding secretary of what was to become the African National Congress ANC and his work within the context of colonial politics and resistance Arguing for a return to the study of one of the founders of anti racism Moran explores issues of land reform human rights and the legacy of colonialism Through an in depth analysis of Plaatje s resistance to racial domination Moran examines the nature of the struggles that continue within and beyond South Africa today In particular Moran analyzes events from the beginning of the previous century that shaped post 1994 South Africa such as the resolution of the ANC to expropriate land without compensation Criminal Courts Craig Hemmens,David C. Brody,Cassia Spohn,2019-02-04 Written by three nationally recognized experts in the field Criminal Courts A Contemporary Perspective explores all the fundamental topics court structure courtroom actors and the trial and appeals process as well as other ground breaking topics such as specialty courts and comparative court systems This bestseller provides you with a foundation for understanding key concepts by reviewing the judicial function the role and purpose of law sources of law the various types of law and the American court system s structure and operations You will build on this foundation by learning about participants in the system and the pretrial trial and post trial processes Packed with contemporary examples and new pedagogical tools the Fourth Edition has been thoroughly revised with the most up to date content and resources to give you a more comprehensive understanding of the criminal courts system The Death Penalty Roger Hood CBE QC (Hon) DCL FBA,Carolyn Hoyle,2008-03-27 The 4th edition of this authoritative study of the death penalty now written jointly with Carolyn Hoyle brings up to date developments in the movement to abolish the death penalty worldwide It draws on Roger Hood s experience as consultant to the United Nations for the UN Secretary General s five yearly surveys of capital punishment and on the latest information from non governmental organizations and the academic literature Not only have many more countries abolished capital punishment but even amongst those that retain it the majority have been carrying out fewer executions Legal challenges to the mandatory capital punishment have been successful as has the pressure to abolish the death penalty for those who commit a capital crime when under the age of 18 This edition has more to say about the prospects that China will restrict and control the number of executions on the road to abolition Yet despite such advances this book reveals many human rights abuses where the death penalty still exists In some countries a wide range of crimes are still subject to capital punishment and the authorities too often fail to meet the safeguards embodied in international human rights treaties to safeguard those facing the death penalty There is evidence of police abuse unfair trials lack of access to competent defence counsel excessive periods of time spent on in horrible conditions on death row and public painful forms of execution The authors engage with the latest debates on the realities of capital punishment especially its justification as a uniquely effective deterrent whether it can ever be administered equitably without discrimination or error and what influence relatives of victims should have in sentencing and on the public debate For the first time it also discussing the problem of devising an alternative to capital punishment especially life imprisonment without the possibility of parole

Stark,2015-10-01 This new edition of the bestselling Responding to Domestic Violence explores the response to domestic violence today not only by the criminal justice system but also by public and non profit social service and health care agencies After providing a brief theoretical overview of the causes of domestic violence and its prevalence in our society the authors cover such key topics as barriers to intervention variations in arrest practices the role of state and federal legislation and case prosecution Focusing on both victims and offenders the book includes unique chapters on models for judicial intervention domestic violence and health and children and domestic violence In addition this edition provides an in depth discussion of the concept of coercive control in domestic violence and its importance in understanding victim needs Finally this volume includes international perspectives in order to broaden the reader s understanding of alternative responses to the problem of domestic violence Merchant and Banker ... ,1874

Cumulated Index Medicus ,1993 Political Power and Social Theory Diane E. Davis,Julian Go,2009-12-21 It is time to consider changes in the field of comparative historical sociology as the discipline seeks to accommodate old and new trends as well as the transforming spatial scales in which political power and social theory are increasingly embedded This title showcases articles that pursue similar themes Legal Research Methods Michael D. Murray,Christy Hallam DeSanctis,2009 The Murray and DeSanctis titles are designed for the current generation of law students whose familiarity and comfort with on line and computer based learning create a demand for teaching resources that take advantage of that familiarity and comfort level Legal Research Methods provides a process based text covering all aspects of first year legal analysis and research This book focuses on legal research tools and the theory and practice of legal research written from a practitioner s perspective It discusses planning for research and performing research and provides criteria for determining when you are finished with your research It has sample research plans for tight budgets in terms of time or expense and its process oriented methodology is designed to maximize research results in the most economical ways Paired with the book is an electronic computer based version of the text that adds links to on line databases and internet based resources and supplements the text with pop up definitions from Black s Law Dictionary The electronic version of the text is searchable and highly portable with internal and external navigation links making them more valuable for use in class and out The interactive text employs a layout that departs from the traditional all text casebook format through use of callout text boxes diagrams and color border segregated feature sections for hypotheticals references to scholarly debates or other useful information for law students For more information and additional teaching materials visit the companion site Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker, 2015-11-26 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment This historical analysis examines the social political and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases and a profile of the current female death row population

The Evolution of the Juvenile Court Barry C. Feld, 2019-06-01 Winner 2020 ACJS Outstanding Book Award given by the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences A major statement on the juvenile justice system by one of America's leading experts The juvenile court lies at the intersection of youth policy and crime policy Its institutional practices reflect our changing ideas about children and crime control The Evolution of the Juvenile Court provides a sweeping overview of the American juvenile justice system's development and change over the past century Noted law professor and criminologist Barry C Feld places special emphasis on changes over the last 25 years the ascendance of get tough crime policies and the more recent Supreme Court recognition that children are different Feld's comprehensive historical analyses trace juvenile courts evolution through four periods the original Progressive Era the Due Process Revolution in the 1960s the Get Tough Era of the 1980s and 1990s and today's Kids Are Different era In each period changes in the economy cities families race and ethnicity and politics have shaped juvenile courts policies and practices Changes in juvenile courts ends and means substance and procedure reflect shifting notions of children s culpability and competence The Evolution of the Juvenile Court examines how conservative politicians used coded racial appeals to advocate get tough policies that equated children with adults and more recent Supreme Court decisions that draw on developmental psychology and neuroscience research to bolster its conclusions about youths reduced criminal responsibility and diminished competence Feld draws on lessons from the past to envision a new developmentally appropriate justice system for children Ultimately providing justice for children requires structural changes to reduce social and economic inequality concentrated poverty in segregated urban areas that disproportionately expose children of color to juvenile courts punitive policies Historical prescriptive and analytical The Evolution of the Juvenile Court evaluates the author s past recommendations to abolish juvenile courts in light of this new evidence and concludes that separate but reformed juvenile courts are necessary to protect children who commit crimes and facilitate their successful transition to adulthood
