and the Space of Painting in Eighteenth-Century Europe Isabelle Tillerot, 2024-01-02 An insightful look at how East Asian notions of space transformed Western painting This volume offers the first critical account of how European imports of East Asian textiles porcelain and lacquers along with newly published descriptions of the Chinese garden inspired a revolution in the role of painting in early modern Europe With particular focus on French interiors Isabelle Tillerot reveals how a European enthusiasm for East Asian culture and a demand for novelty transformed the dynamic between painting and decor Models of space landscape and horizon as shown in Chinese and Japanese objects and their ornamentation disrupted prevailing design concepts in Europe With paintings no longer functioning as pictorial windows they began to be viewed as discrete images displayed on a wall and with that their status changed from decorative device to autonomous work of art This study presents a detailed history of this transformation revealing how an aesthetic free from the constraints of symmetry and geometrized order upended paradigms of display enabling European painting to come into its own Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860–1940 Silvia Davoli, Tom Stammers, 2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860–1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal: How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021 The Italian Presence in American Art, 1760–1860 Irma B. Jaffe, 1989 Annotation Sixteen essays examine aspects of American art that owe a debt to Italy and Italian artists A central theme is the tension between perceptions of Italy as a mythic presence the visual incarnation of spirit and a contrasting ambivalence felt by many Americans about the cultural ties binding them to Europe despite their political independence With some 200 illustrations 36 in color Not indexed Pre publication price 49.95 until 12/31/90 Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com 149 Paintings You Really Should See in Europe — France Julian Porter, 2013-10-16 This chapter from Julian Porter's essential companion to all the major European museums and galleries discusses some of the greatest paintings to be found in the museums and galleries of France His passion for art began with the seven years he spent as a student tour guide in Europe In this segment

he visits Paris and discusses works by masters such as Delacroix David Renoir Manet Degas and many more In the usually pretentious arena of art connoisseurs Porter s voice stands out as fresh and original He finds the best of the best which he describes with entertaining irreverence and spares you hours of sore feet and superfluous information Delicious Decadence ?The Rediscovery of French Eighteenth-Century Painting in the Nineteenth Century Monica Preti,2017-07-05 The history of collecting is a topic of central importance to many academic disciplines and shows no sign of abating in popularity As such scholars will welcome this collection of essays by internationally recognised experts that gathers together for the first time varied and stimulating perspectives on the nineteenth century collector and art market for French eighteenth century art and ultimately the formation of collections that form part of such august institutions as the Louvre and the National Gallery in London The book is the culmination of a successful conference organised jointly between the Wallace Collection and the Louvre on the occasion of the acclaimed exhibition Masterpieces from the Louvre The Collection of Louis La Caze Exploring themes relating to collectors critics markets and museums from France England and Germany the volume will appeal to academics and students alike and become essential reading on any course that deals with the history of collecting the history of taste and the nineteenth century craze for the perceived douceur de vivre of eighteenth century France It also provides valuable insight into the history of the art markets and the formation of museums The representation of Roma in major European museum collections Sarah Carmona,2020-05-14 What do works of art teach us from their period of creation What do they teach us about human interaction about social groups The Council of Europe is a key player in the fight to respect the rights and equal treatment of Roma and Travellers As such it implements various actions aimed at combating discrimination facilitating the access of Roma and Travellers to public services and justice giving visibility to their history culture and languages and ensuring their participation in the different levels of decision making Another aspect of the Council of Europe s work is to improve the wider public s understanding of the Roma and their place in Europe Knowing and understanding Roma and Travellers their customs their professions their history their migration and the laws affecting them are indispensable elements for interpreting the situation of Roma and Travellers today and understanding the discrimination they face This publication focuses on what the works exhibited at the Louvre Museum tell us about the place and perception of Roma in Europe from the 15th to the 19th centuries Students aged 12 to 18 teachers and any other visitor to the Louvre interested in this theme will find detailed worksheets on 15 paintings representing Roma and Travellers and a booklet to foster reflection on the works and their context while creating links with our contemporary perception of Roma and Travellers in today s society Hogarth and his Place in European Art Frederick Antal,2022-11-30 First published in 1962 Hogarth and his Place in European Art attempts to convey the historical relevance both in its native and European context of perhaps the most outstanding English painter of the eighteenth century Dr Antal applies his method of establishing the close relationship between the political and social history and the arts and letters of the period Thus the book goes far beyond the limits of art historical appreciation. It gives a panoramic picture of the first half of the eighteenth century in England with all its social, literary and artistic connotations. He shows how England, which during those years became both politically and economically the most advanced country in Europe, could provide in Hogarth, in spite of the slender native tradition, the most progressive artistic personality of his time, whose work revealed the views and tastes of a broad cross section of society. He traces Hogarth's stylistic origins back to their European sources and analyses his impact on contemporary European and English art as well as the influence he exerted on generations to come. This book will be of interest to students of art, art history, literature and European history.

More Than Illustrated Music Kathrin

Dreckmann, Elfi Vomberg, 2023-02-23 The genre of the video clip has been established for more than thirty years, mainly served by the sub-genres of video art and music video. This book explores processes of hybridization between music video, film and video art by presenting current theoretical discourses and engaging them through interviews with well-known artists and directors, bringing to the surface the crucial questions of art practice. The collection discusses topics including postcolonialism, posthumanism, gender, race and class and addresses questions regarding the hybrid media structure of video, the diffusion between content and form, art and commerce as well as pop culture and counterculture. Through the diversity of the areas and interviews included, the book builds on and moves beyond earlier aesthetics-driven perspectives on music video.
