Love Lessons Twelve Real Life Love Stories:

Love Lessons Lois Smith Brady, 1999 Nothing is more fun than learning how the stories behind true love developed the tiny personal details usually found only in locked diaries or heart to heart conversations Lois Smith Brady has made a career of interviewing couples about everything from their first date to who does the dishes to who said I love you first Now she brings to life 12 of her favourite stories offering proof that when it comes to love everyone has a chance Why There Are No Good Men Left Barbara Dafoe Whitehead, 2008-12-24 A hard hitting groundbreaking exploration of the new mating conditions that are changing the face of love commitment and marriage as we know it A double revolution is at work in modern American love A revolution in higher education has created the most professionally accomplished and independent generation of young women in history and a revolution in mating has created a prolonged and perplexing search for Mr Right Based on extensive research and interviews Why There Are No Good Men Left explores the romantic plight of this high status woman with findings that are sure to rouse debate Cultural historian Barbara Dafoe Whitehead documents the new social climate in which the demands of work the epidemic of cohabitation the disappearance of courtship and the exacting standards of educated women are leading them to stay single longer and to find the search for a mate even harder when the time is right From the frontlines of college where dating is dead to the trenches of corporate solitude Whitehead reports on a wholesale shift that has stacked the marriage deck against the best and brightest women The thirty something perplexed single woman is today's new cultural icon Why There Are No Good Men Left is the first book to take a serious approach to analyzing where she came from and to ask how she can realize her dreams of lasting love Mergers and Acquisitions Cate Doty, 2021-05-04 A compulsively readable behind the scenes memoir that takes readers inside the weddings section of The New York Times the good bad and just plain weird through the eyes of a young reporter just as she's falling in love herself Growing up in the south where tradition reigns supreme Cate Doty thought about weddings a lot She catered for them she attended many she imagined her own So when she moved to New York City in pursuit of love and to write for The New York Times she finds her natural home in the wedding section a first step to her own happily ever after surely Soon Cate is thrown into the cutthroat world of the metropolitan society pages experiencing the lengths couples go to have their announcements accepted and the lengths the writers go in fact checking their stories the surprising status signaling details that matter most to brides and grooms and the politics of the paper at a time of vast cultural and industry changes Reporting weekly on couples whose relationships seem enviable or eye roll worthy and dealing with WASPy grandparents and last minute snafus Cate is surrounded by love or what we're told to believe is love But when she starts to take the leap herself she begins to ask her own questions about what it means to truly commit Warm witty and keenly observed Mergers and Acquisitions is an enthralling dive into one of society's most esteemed institutions its creators and subjects and a young woman's coming of age Library Journal, 1999 Love on the Racks Michelle Nolan, 2015-03-21 For the better part of
