Love Memory:

Love's Memory Betty McLain,2021-12-06 Love was in the air People everywhere were being matched by a magic mirror and falling in love Silas watched his family grow larger from all the marriages and children He wondered when his time would come but a part of his mind couldn't let go of a memory from long ago of a beautiful girl He called her his woodland sprite but where had she gone and would he ever see her again May struggled against the unwanted advances of the man her mother wanted her to marry She did not love him Her memories were full of the vision of a boy she loved from afar but her family had left that place long ago She never expected to see him again especially not in the reflection of the magic mirror She knew she loved him but following her heart meant leaving her family and returning to the home they left behind Could their love be strong enough to withstand the wrath of her mother and become more than just a memory Past Love

Nussbaum,1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum s published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Minima Cuba Marta Hernández Salván,2015-06-30 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title M nima Cuba analyzes the reconfiguration of aesthetics and power during the Cuban postrevolutionary transition 1989 to 2005 the conclusion of the Special Period It explores the marginal cultural production on the island by the first generation of intellectuals born during the Revolution The author studies the work of postrevolutionary poets and essayists Antonio Jos Ponte Rolando S nchez Mej as and Iv n de la Nuez among others In their writing we find the exhaustion of the allegorical and melancholic rhetoric of the Cuban Revolution and the poetics of irony developed in the current biopolitical era The book will appeal to anyone interested in contemporary literary and cultural studies poetics and film studies in Latin America and the Caribbean Pastoral Care in Education Phil Jones,Noel Purdy,Dave Trotman,Stan Tucker,2023-10-12 This book is both a celebration of 40 years of the National Association for Pastoral Care in Education NAPCE and a forward thinking volume examining the key pastoral issues of our time Bringing together a range of expert contributors from a variety of educational settings the book offers fresh insights and evidence based strategies which will be of immediate relevance for all educators This unique volume considers a wide range of themes from charting the early days of pastoral care in education in the UK and the establishment of NAPCE through to the discussion of contemporary pastoral challenges facing children and young people around the world This timely

In the Dark Room
Rosanna Maule, Julie Beaulieu, 2009 This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five
