SCM Core Text: Christian Doctrine Mike Higton, 2013-01-25 The SCM Core Text Christian Doctrine offers an up to date accessible introduction to one of the core subjects of theology Written for second and third year university students it shows that Christian Doctrine is not a series of impossible claims to be clung to with blind faith Mike Higton argues that it is rather a set of claims that emerge in the midst of Christian life as Christian communities try to make enough sense of their lives and of their world to allow them to carry on Christian communities have made sense of their own life and the life of the wider world in which they are set as life created by God to share in God's own life They have seen themselves and their world as laid hold of God's life in Jesus of Nazareth and as having the Spirit of God's own life actively at work within them This book explores these and other central Christian doctrines and in each case shows how the doctrine makes sense and how it is woven into Christian life It will help readers to see what sense it might make to say the things that Christian doctrine says and how that doctrine might affect the way that one looks at everything the natural world gossip culture speaking in tongues politics dieting human freedom love High Noon justice computers racism the novels of Jane Austen parenthood death and fashion

Divine Impassibility Richard E. Creel, 2005-06-21 In this volume Richard Creel sets forth a thesis that offers a third way to approach divine impassibility Defining impassibility as imperviousness to causal influence from external factors Creel sketches a path between Aquinas and Hartshorne by asserting that once this definition is accepted one must still distinguish the various respects in which God is or is not impassible. Virtually no one would dispute that the divine nature is impassible. God will never cease to be God no matter what happens in creation. With respect to the divine knowledge and will, however, there are conflicting views. Creel claims that God's will is impassible because God knows everything that can be accomplished by divine power. Yet unlike Aquinas, Creel believes that God has this knowledge in virtue of a plenum of possibilities eternally coexistent with the divine being. The absolute is not simply God but rather God plus the plenum. Creel suggests that God's knowledge is passible with respect to the contingent future actions of creatures. God knows these actions therefore not in their presentiality from all eternity as Aquinas would hold but only as they happen and become actual. God's will, however, remains immediately impassible because the divine will is ordered to possibilities not actualities. God never has to wait until after we do something in order to decide his response to it. He has eternally decided his response to all that we might do. Ultimately, God's feelings remain impassible no matter what concrete decisions human beings make because the basic intent of the divine plan for us is always achieved: we exercise our freedom to choose for or against God. God is impassible with respect to the divine nature, divine will, and divine feelings but God is passible with respect to the divine knowledge of future contingent events.

Master Fan's Sweet Love: No Escape Qing Tian, 2019-11-23 Suddenly a low hoarse male voice came from behind her. You're leaving after you slept with me. I'm sorry. I don't know. Jiang Yunxi panicked and didn't know what to do. The only thing in her mind was to leave as soon as possible. She apologized subconsciously, ignored everything else, and charged forward recklessly.

The Restless Flame Louis De Wohl, 2010-08-11 This is a stirring novel which deals reverently but realistically with the fascinating life and era of St Augustine, one of the most remarkable men of all time. In his vigorous and inimitable style, Louis de Wohl tells the story of St Augustine's transformation from a vain sensual youth to the brilliant devout writer and theologian, the man who conquered himself as completely as he did the adversaries of the Church whose literary and philosophical masterpieces were to dominate Western thought for a thousand years. He has carefully re-created the exciting historical background of the time, the turbulent atmosphere of the Roman Empire in the last days of decadence, skillfully weaving together the personalities whose lives closely affected Augustine: Monica, his saintly and heroic mother; majestic Ambrose, Bishop of Milan; and many others whom he lends richness and depth to the life story of this great Doctor of the Church. Here is a novel that glistens with the imaginative and vivid drama that epitomized St Augustine's tumultuous life, presented with a master storyteller's characteristic flair for graphic description, sensitive portraiture, and fascinating historical lore. A Love for Nothingness, A Love for Death Alberto Castelli,2024-06-15 This book aims at explaining romantic love between straight adults through literary texts of the western canon from the nineteenth and twentieth century Each chapter comes with a multidisciplinary approach in which protagonists are mutilated in their quest for loving as alternative to annihilation The book emphasizes love as an obsession thus as an exploration of the mind From the passion myth of Tristan and Isolde to the nihilist modernist representations the western world has created a perverse concept of love A love for nothingness for death Narcissistic and at times destructive love is gained by overcoming obstacles If without obstacles there is no love then love becomes love for obstacles Within this masochistic frame love falling in love being loved always stand at the edge of pathology At its core this book narrates a love story more precisely a story of loves the haunting evocation of a desire that by its very nature cannot be fulfilled Inherent in the nature of love is a subtle dialectical activity between presence and absence between creation and destruction reality and void Accordingly the narrative raises questions that the past two centuries were incapable of answering Does love only last the time of a kiss Is its promise fatally destined to dissolve What about violence Physical emotional temporal Is it an ineliminable part of love or its most extreme profanation And what is the mystery that accompanies loves that know how to last without resigning themselves to the death of desire It is to answer some of these questions that I wrote this text Love is an unconscious process that dominates reason and destroys it when reason cannot be a mode of communication Hence the amorous romance is madness and this text is written as a loud reminder

The Love Affairs of Great Musicians Rupert Hughes,1907 Mask in the Mirror Nidhi Chawla,2010-04 The process of weaving a fictional dream can be painful and also joyful path to self discovery realizes an ordinary man when he sits down to reveal his thoughts and bring to life characters whose lives would confront and impact his heart and mind As the people of the imaginary world open the Writer s eyes to his own soul he relishes his intimate sentiments and sees the color of his emotions Caught in an imaginary fabrication where at times he basks in the beauty of creation and at moments he suffers its loneliness There is transformation and simultaneous transition during these years of writing the beginning commences in the cold winter and rejuvenating spring comes in the end But the big question is will the Writer and his realm of fiction survive or both perish without the world ever reading his words and recognizing his worth Mask in the Mirror is a gripping story of self discovery introspection and a touching saga of how fictional life can change the real life of an ordinary man

The Novels of Fyodor Dostoevsky: The friend of the family Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 1928

No Greater Love, No Greater Sacrifice Jeremiah F. Stephens, 2020-02-09

The poems contained in this book were all written at key points in my life In essence each poem served as a source of inspiration to get me through dark times and remind me of my dependency on the grace of God Each piece included in this book focuses on salvation and who you are in God You may notice that some of these pieces have a unique flow and structure that one would normally associate with lyrics to a song and such pieces can be converted to contemporary Gospel songs Because of the connection between these poems and my heart I feel these are my most personal work This book is the first of more to come I hope that in reading these short pieces you too can be inspired to believe I believe these poems will inspire you no matter where you may find yourself in life as they will serve to remind you that you are somebody because God values you The greatest message God ever proclaimed to humanity was through the sacrifice of His Son Jesus through His death upon the cross We live in a world that does not value human dignity a world that treats people as if they are commodities But I hope to introduce you through these writings to a higher love It is my desire that you learn to see yourself through the eyes of God rather than through the eyes of the world Remember better is not good enough The best is yet to come
