

Short Stories and Novellas

From a vengeful woman, to an aging actress seeking one last great performance, to a little boy trying to get even with his sister, to a giant finding love with a human woman, to a dying young girl looking for her first romance, this collection of short stories and novellas runs the gamut from fantasy to reality to science fiction. These are stories told in the tradition of storytelling as one young girl finds out in her adventure into writing stories. They are the stories told around a campfire, sometimes surprising, sometimes not. Some are serious, some humorous. Some recount love found and some love lost. In the end, they all have one goal, to entertain.

Malcolm Chester has a lifelong interest in writing fiction, which he reads with some regularity. He earned a bachelor's degree from Brown in political science and a masters degree in child study from Tufts early in his career. He minored in creative writing while in college. Later in life, the author earned a Juris Doctorate degree from the Illinois Institute of Technology. He has been a public affairs executive at a major corporation and has continued to work in this area as a consultant while also practicing law. This is the author's fourth published work, having written science fiction, political drama and pre-teen fantasy books.
