processes in the first place They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time this comprehension is itself already the product of these media s fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films understanding the former as the latter s constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity Departing from a non taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films FIELD OF DREAMS WE ARE MARSHALL KNUTE ROCKNE ALL AMERICAN JIM THORPE ALL AMERICAN MIRACLE A History of American Sports in 100 Objects Cait Murphy, 2016-10-11 A history of American sports told through one hundred iconic objects
