South Carolina's Lowcountry Anthony Chibbaro, 1999-09 Known for its unique beauty and complex history South Carolina's Lowcountry is one of the South's and the country's most fascinating regions A wonderful blend of picturesque coastlines expansive marshes mysterious swamps and verdant landscapes the Lowcountry has played a vital role in our nation's history from its importance as a port in colonial times to its strategic location during the American Revolution to its most famous landmark Fort Sumter the incendiary starting point of the Confederacy's struggle for secession In this volume you will explore this region as never before through a rare collection of stereoscopic images Also called stereoviews these twin images were made by an early photographic technique which allowed the viewer to experience a vibrant and intriguing three dimensional effect South Carolina's Lowcountry has reproduced one side of each stereoscopic pair in order to facilitate an easier reading and viewing experience which will allow you to take a visual journey through the defenses of Forts Sumter and Moultrie to see both Confederate and Union soldiers posing in their camps by cannon and upon ironclads to walk through the rubble of a war torn Charleston and then observe the dramatic changes of the cityscapes in both the Holy City and Beaufort by the turn of the century to stroll down a plantation's traditional avenue of live oaks under the peaceful sway of Spanish moss and to meet a variety of Lowcountry inhabitants at their homes and at work

Gardens of Philadelphia & the Delaware Valley William M. Klein, 1995 Once mostly rolling hills and valleys covered with hardwood forest in the seventeenth century contemporary Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley now claim the largest concentration of many of the finest public and private gardens in the world William M Klein explores the broader attitudes and behaviors toward nature that have influenced this development of colonial farms and gardens created for survival to the art of suburban gardens to nature conservatories and public parks Discover how in 300 years we have moved from fencing nature out to fencing nature in Out of the past examine the worm fence at Colonial Pennsylvania Plantations overgrown by weeds as it would have been during Colonial times zigzagging across the fields tenuously holding back the great forest that presses down Into the present consider the chain link fence at the John Heinz Wildlife Refuge at Tinicum that bounds a threatened wetland habitat from the intrusion of highways and reverberates to the sounds of traffic from I 95 and the Philadelphia International Airport Klein's eloquent and knowledgeable narrative include detailed portraits of forty four individual gardens all lustrously illustrated by noted garden photographer Derek Fell While considering a particular garden's historical and social influences Klein discusses the philosophy behind each garden its planner's goals and even personality and the garden's interaction with surrounding architecture This complete guide also includes each location's address phone number hours of operation events and featured plants flowers and trees Yet this book goes far beyond the usual guides in this search for answers to the perennial questions of how and why each generation struggles to define its place in nature As we approach the twenty first century the garden has become the metaphor for how we must begin to view all nature today tended space where we collect name nurture and share our love of plants Author note Formerly Director of the Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania Dr William M Klein Jr is Executive Director of the National Tropical Botanical Garden in Lawai Hawaii In 1993 he was presented with the American Horticultural Society's Professional Award and has been a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science since 1989 He has published many important writings on nature botany and landscape including his previous book The Vascular Flora of Pennsylvania Annotated Checklist and Atlas Derek Fell is a widely published garden photographer and the author of more than 50 garden books and garden calendars House & Garden ,1923 California Garden ,1928 The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Martin V. Melosi,2014-02-01

From semitropical coastal areas to high mountain terrain from swampy lowlands to modern cities the environment holds a fundamental importance in shaping the character of the American South This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture surveys the dynamic environmental forces that have shaped human culture in the region and the ways humans have shaped their environment Articles examine how the South s ecology physiography and climate have influenced southerners not only as a daily fact of life but also as a metaphor for understanding culture and identity This volume includes ninety eight essays that explore both broadly and specifically elements of the southern environment Thematic overviews address subjects such as plants animals energy use and development and natural disasters Shorter topical entries feature familiar species such as the alligator the ivory billed woodpecker kudzu and the mockingbird Also covered are important individuals in southern environmental history and prominent places in the landscape such as the South s national parks and seashores New articles cover contemporary issues in land use and conservation environmental protection and the current status of the flora and fauna widely associated with the South The Arts of Leading Edward Brooks,Michael Lamb,2024-12-02

A deeply insightful approach to cultivating leaders of character centered on the arts and humanities What does it mean to lead Whom do we consider to be leaders And how might viewing leadership through the many lenses of the humanities expand our understanding of how it is imagined represented and enacted Drawing on insights from eminent scholars in the classics philosophy religion literature history art music and theater The Arts of Leading reveals the power of the arts and humanities to unsettle common assumptions about leadership Rather than instrumentalizing the arts and humanities or reducing them to mere management resources this series of thoughtful and refreshing essays engages a litany of diverse and nuanced perspectives to uncover alternative ways of imagining and embodying leadership across different historical moral political and cultural contexts By exploring how a wide range of disciplines can illuminate and humanize complex aspects of leadership that are often obscured in a discourse hooked on reductive paradigms and quick fixes The Arts of Leading invites leaders scholars and citizens to expand their practice of leadership in our ever evolving world Insiders' Guide® to Charleston: 1900-1915 Raymond K. Benton, Jr.,2015 This collection of turn of the century postcards represents Charleston 100 years ago Compared to the city residents and visitors know today the resemblance is remarkable however much has changed The property that once housed the Orphan House became a Sears Roebuck and later the growing College of Charleston The Mills House became the St John Hotel in the early 1900s but after falling into disrepair the building was sold in 1968 It was replaced by a close replica of the original Mills House at the corner of Meeting and Queen Streets These are just a few examples of the transformation seen in the Holy City While much of Charleston has evolved with modern times more than enough of the past remains The Touchstone Mary Fanton Roberts,1917
