Women of the Kakawin World Helen Creese,2015-01-28 In this fascinating study the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets For more than a millennium the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived Major themes in this poetry form include war love and marriage It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia Still being produced in Bali today kakawin remain of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women For over a thousand years these royal courts were major patrons of the arts The court sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its earliest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or bela self immolation of widows

The Greatest Farce of History Gopal Chowdhary,2014-03-04 The book seeks to analyse the faultlines and subversion in the ancient history of India in the praxis of social domination and systematic marginalization and obliteration of traditional political elites or traditional Kshatriya that social elites Priestly class or caste of ancient India achieved just to maintain their socio political domination and hegemony This rather myopic act led to the balkanization of socio political scape of mediaeval India resulting into subjugation plunder and foreign invasions and rule for one thousand years Through the case study of Krishna and Mahabharata period the book tries to illuminate the so called Dark Age of the Indian history Despite the numerous archaeological proves found in the form of Painted Grey Ware PGW associated with Mahabharata period and Black Red Ware BRW with different shades associated with Krishna and Yadavas which tally with details of different scriptures and epic nothing seems to be happening in this regard This very fact seems to underline the continued saga of subversion and domination that seemed to have been ingrained in the post Krishna and Mahabharata period Once the deification and mystification of great historical personality and period such as Krishna and Mahabharata was started just to negate the socio political revolutions ushered into it seems to have continued and institutionalized MAHABHARATA
