Mahy Magic Margaret Mahy, 1986      Mahy Magic Margaret Mahy, 1991      Mahy Magic Margaret Mahy, 1991      The 100 Most Popular Young Adult Authors Bernard A. Drew, 1997-10-15 The book focuses on individuals writing in the 90s but also includes 12 classic authors e g Mark Twain Louisa May Alcott J R R Tolkien who are still widely read by teens It also covers some authors known primarily for adult literature e g Stephen King and some who write mainly for middle readers but are also popular among young adults e g Betsy Byars An affordable alternative to multivolume publications this book makes a great collection development tool and resource for author studies It will also help readers find other books by and about their favorite writers      Fantasy and Myth in the Anthropocene Marek Oziewicz, Brian Attebery, Tereza Dedinová, 2022-02-24 The first study to look at the intersection of the discourse of the Anthropocene within the two highly influential storytelling modes of fantasy and myth this book shows the need for stories that articulate visions of a biocentric ecological civilization Fantasy and myth have long been humanity s most advanced technologies for collective dreaming Today they are helping us adopt a biocentric lens re kin us with other forms of life and assist us in the transition to an ecological civilization Deliberately moving away from dystopian narratives toward anticipatory imaginations of sustainable futures this volume blends chapters by top scholars in the fields of fantasy myth and Young Adult literature with personal reflections by award winning authors and illustrators of books for young audiences including Shaun Tan Jane Yolen Katherine Applegate and Joseph Bruchac Chapters cover the works of major fantasy authors such as J R R Tolkien Terry Prachett J K Rowling China Mi ville Barbara Henderson Jeanette Winterson John Crowley Richard Powers George R R Martin and Kim Stanley Robinson They range through narratives set in the UK USA Nigeria Ghana Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia Across the chapters fantasy and myth are framed as spaces where visions of sustainable futures can be designed with most detail and nuance Rather than merely criticizing the ecocidal status quo the book asks how mythic narratives and fantastic stories can mobilize resistance around ideas necessary for the emergence of an ecological civilization      Children's Fiction Sourcebook Margaret Hobson, Jennifer Madden, Ray Prytherch, 2018-12-17 First published in 1992 this Sourcebook is a basic working tool for all those concerned with children s reading It will help librarians and teachers to select a comprehensive stock of children s fiction for their institutions The authors in the sourcebook have been selected on the grounds of importance popularity and current availability Author entries are arranged in alphabetical order and indexes provided by title series age range and genre Each entry consists of some background information and evaluative comment on style of the book a list of the authors books with publisher date and price and literary agent where applicable There is a suggestion of similar authors sequels related series and reader age range      The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror Seventh Annual Collection , 1994      Radical Children's Literature K. Reynolds, 2007-04-12 This book reappraises the place of children s literature showing it to be a creative space where writers and illustrators try out new ideas about books society and narratives in an age of instant communication and multi media It looks at the stories about the world and young people the interaction with changing childhoods and new technologies     The Junior Bookshelf ,1991     Children's Fantasy Literature Michael Levy,Farah Mendlesohn,2016-04-21 A comprehensive study of children s fantasy literature across the English speaking world from the sixteenth century to the present     Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson,2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs     Color and Shape Books for All Ages Cathie Hilterbran Cooper,2000 Color and Shape Books for All Ages calls attention to more than 450 titles focused on the concepts of color and shape The purposes of the color and shape books range from simply learning the names of colors or identifying simple shapes to recognizing intricate geometric shapes or even understanding how color affects responses moods and attitudes     The Pain of Unbelonging Sheila Collingwood-Whittick,2007 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors     Book Crush Nancy Pearl,2009-09-29 Do you remember your first book crush You know the first time a book completely captured your imagination transported you to a magical place or introduced you to a lifelong friend you will never forget In Book Crush popular librarian and reading enthusiast Nancy Pearl reminds us why we fell for reading in the first place how completely consuming and life changing a good book can be Pearl offers more than 1 000 crush worthy books organized into over 100 recommended reading lists aimed at youngest middle grade and teen readers From picture books to chapter books YA fiction and nonfiction Pearl has developed more smart and interesting thematic lists of books to enjoy Parents teachers and librarians are often puzzled by the unending choices for reading material for young people It starts when the kids are toddler and doesn't end until high school graduation What's good what's not and what's going to hold their interest Popular librarian Nancy Pearl points the way in Book Crush
