Main Currents in Early Christian Thought Robert R. Barr, 1966-01-01 Main Currents in Early Christian Thought
Robert R. Barr, 2004-10-07 This book by an American Jesuit priest who completed doctoral studies under Jean Danielou at Paris serves to present some of the highlights of the era of the fathers of the church a period which begins with post New Testament Christian writing and extends to about the end of the seventh century A D It is a survey of the era and an introduction to the context of the times in which the fathers thought and wrote and fought not always without bloodshed for the faith and way of life which was coming to be called Christian In Father Barr s summary we feel the pulsing ebb and flow of the early history of Christianity the history of the first impacts of the extraordinary gospel message the good news as it becomes embodied in and expressed by bishops and theologians through the critical early centuries These far away figures men like Clement of Rome Irenaeus Tertullian and Athanasius take on familiar human form as the author sketches them in their milieu showing them acting and reacting amid the various complex forces of their era Cyprian of Carthage puzzling over what to do with the apostate certificate bearers Justin and Origen in their fiery youth Nestorius and his nemesis Cyril of Alexandria in their fiery prime Augustine in the West and the golden age fathers in the East These and other figures emerge as vigorous and sometimes colorful personalities in this lively mosaic of early Christian times Main Currents in Early Christian Thoughts Robert Barr, 1966 Catalogue of the University of Michigan University of Michigan, 1958
Announcements for the following year included in some vols Annual Catalogue of the Officers and Students Colgate Rochester Divinity School, 1925 The Quarterly Journal of the University of North Dakota , 1924 Short History of the Catholic Church J. Derek Holmes, Bernard Bickers, 2002-08-05 This revised edition of a one volume history of the Roman Catholic church includes a final chapter giving an impressionistic account of some of the issues facing the Church as it nears the third millennium of its existence It also covers the Christian history of the first two millennia from the origins of the Church in New Testament times through to the year 2000 Orientalia F. Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006
Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 39 40 42 and 43 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject The New Conscientious Objection Charles C. Moskos, John Whiteclay

Chambers,1993 This study examines the changing motives and patterns of conscientious objection as well as state policies toward objectors in the Western world The Christian Tradition Jaroslav Pelikan,1991-10-04 Explores the iconography dogma and liturgy of Greek Slavic and Syriac forms of Christianity Fundamental Theology Matthew L. Becker,2024-01-25 Encyclopedic in scope this book offers wide ranging coverage of the foundational teachings and practices within the mainstream of the classical Christian tradition It begins with their roots in the Scriptures and also branches out into Eastern and Western Christianity ancient medieval and modern to the present day Part I provides an overview of some of these routes then presents an historical survey of Christianity s major traditions Part II unpacks some of the character of that revelation focusing particularly on epistemological and procedural questions Finally Part III looks at Christian theology in a university setting the possibility and shape of theology as a university discipline its major subfields and its relations with humanities and the sciences respectively Fundamental Theology A Protestant Perspective 2nd edition includes a wide range of pedagogical features each chapter begins with an outline thesis statement highlighted in bold charts and graphs relevant headings and subheadings employed throughout the book keywords provides a survey of pertinent reference literature questions for review and discussion annotated suggestions for further reading Christianity and History Frederick William James Butler,1925 Another Look A. J. Abraham,2013-12-06 Another Look One God and Three Faiths is a unique study of sacred history and monotheism This book lends a refreshing sense of clarity to the misunderstandings between the three western religions Judaism Christianity and Islam Another Look compares the three faiths emphasizing their similarities and differences A J Abraham s research is prodigious reconstructing religious roots with insight and originality This comprehensive introduction will prove useful for both monotheists and followers of other religions Beginning to Read the Fathers Boniface Ramsey,2012 Now revised Beginning to Read the Fathers is an introduction to the church s earliest writers preachers and theologians It presupposes no more knowledge on the part of the reader than that the fathers existed and that their ideas might be important and perhaps even interesting The book does not restrict itself to such topics as Christology and ecclesiology but includes other areas like martyrdom and prayer which were highly important in shaping the mind and heart of the early church The material in this book is arranged thematically and follows a natural progression Each chapter attempts to give a real taste of the subject in question by providing numerous selections from the writings of the fathers some of them classic statements and some relatively obscure Fathers from nearly all periods and traditions are cited The author s opinions although not nonexistent are subordinate to the presentation of the fathers themselves The work was written in a nontechnical style to be read both by beginners and by people with some expertise in the field It concludes with suggestions for a patristics reading program for those who wish to pursue a study of the fathers in more depth Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1969 Christianity and Culture Santosh Thomas,2005 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1979 Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Columbia

College, for the Year ... Columbia College (New York, N.Y.),1926 Catalogue Columbia University,1927 The Non-Canonical Gospels Paul Foster,2008-09-11 This book brings together a collection of chapter length treatments on the most significant of the non canonical gospels A particular strength of the volume is that it draws upon the research of leading experts in the field and clearly and concisely communicates the most hotly contested issues surrounding each text While a key function of each chapter is to make the current academic debates accessible to a wider audience these treatments are not simply overviews or survey articles They also present fresh perspectives on a number of points and critically assess the most recent trends in scholarship As such they will provide an ideal entry point for advanced undergraduate courses and taught Masters programmes The structure of the book is divided up in an easily useable format There is an introduction which underscores the significance of the non canonical texts both for the original readers and for contemporary audiences This chapter by Keith Elliott also traces important moments in the reception of a number of these texts both in art and literature Next follows the main sequence of chapters dealing with individual texts Texts such as the Gospel of Thomas the Gospel of Peter and the Gospel of Mary are treated first due to the impact they have had to varying degrees on Historical Jesus research Other texts are grouped in various subgroups the two infancy gospels follow each other and the more fragmentary texts are also closely linked in the arrangement The book presents one of the most comprehensive and up to date discussions of a range of texts that continue to be of interest to scholars and wider readers The discussions should clarify a number of popular misconceptions and allow for a more informed debate The scholars who contribute to this collection represent an eclectic range of views and theological outlooks No attempt has been made to impose a prescribed perspective Rather the leading experts have been consulted to produce fresh and stimulating treatments The book will include contributions from Andrew Gregory Oxford Christopher Tuckett Cambridge April DeConick Rice and Simon Gathercole Aberdeen among others
