Mains Sales Les:

Jean-Paul Sartre: A Bibliography of International Criticism Robert Wilcocks, 1975 A large comprehensive compilation of journalism and international criticism of the works and activities of Jean Paul Sartre The work covers Sartre s stormy career from 1937 to 1975 containing nearly 700 000 entries and over 3 200 authors Theatres of War Ted Freeman, 1998 Theatres of War is the first full length study to be devoted to the Committed theatre that flourished in modern France from 1944 to the mid 1950s During this crucial decade authors responded to the issues of their time by contributing a number of tense controversial plays to a distinctive genre of realist theatre Sartre: Literature and Theory Rhiannon Goldthorpe, 1984 In this major study Rhiannon Goldthorpe takes up the challenge of Sartre s diversity in an original and provocative way Her detailed and comprehensive exploration of the relationship between the theoretical and literary works pays due attention to their characteristic complexity The discussion of La Nausée Les Mouches Huis clos Les Mains sales and Les Quatre Derniers Jours d'Altona for example does not present these literary texts as mere illustrations of Sartre s theories of consciousness imagination and emotion but as subtle philosophical and linguistic investigations in their own right In addition by reference to recently published fragments from Sartre s earlier work Goldthorpe calls into question existing views of Sartre s intellectual development and provides a new history of the crucial Sartrean concept of commitment La langue des Français J. word and as a set of actions are intensely contested This volume explores how literature has dealt with terrorism from the Renaissance to today inviting the reader to make connections between older instances of terrorism and contemporary ones and to see how the various literary treatments of terrorism draw on each other The essays demonstrate that the debates around terrorism only give the fictive imagination more room and that fiction has a great deal to offer in terms of both understanding terrorism and our responses to it Written by historians and literary critics the essays provide essential knowledge to understand terrorism in its full complexity As befitting a global problem this book brings together a truly international group of scholars with representatives from America Scotland Canada New Zealand Italy Israel and other countries

Sartre Against Stalinism Ian H. Birchall, 2004-06-01 Most critics of the political evolution of Jean Paul Sartre have laid emphasis on his allegedly sympathetic and uncritical attitude to Stalinist Communism due to a large extent to their equation of Marxism with Stalinism It is true that Sartre was guilty of many serious misjudgements with regard to the USSR and the French Communist Party But his relationship with the Marxist Left was much more complex and contradictory than most accounts admit This book offers a political defence of Sartre and shows how from a relatively apolitical stance in the 1930s Sartre became increasingly involved in the politics of the Left though he always distrusted Stalinism he was sometimes driven to ally himself with it because of the force of its argument

Derivations Juan Uriagereka, 2005-08-11 This book presents an analysis of a variety of central linguistic notions such as case agreement obviation and rigidity from a derivational perspective
