Mainstreaming HIV/AIDS in Development and Humanitarian Programmes - Primary Source Edition Sue Holden,2014-02 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book

Renewing Our Voice David Wilson,2004 This book provides a common tool to advocate for evidence based programmes outlining the principles that underscore successful NGO HIV and AIDS work The principles set out in this Code are invaluable guidelines for organisational planning programme development implementation and evaluation advocacy efforts and resource allocation

World Disasters Report 2008 - Focus on HIV and AIDS ,2008 HIV/AIDS and human development in sub-Saharan Africa Tanja R. Müller,2023-08-28 This third part of the AWLAE series on HIV AIDS and agriculture in sub Saharan Africa focuses on the epidemic as a challenge to human development in general and rural development in particular In the face of the impact of the epidemic as described in parts one and two of the series the agricultural sector can play an important role in mitigating some of its effects Strategies for agricultural intervention are of particular importance in sub Saharan Africa given the fact that most of the countries hardest hit by the epidemic are heavily reliant on agriculture Different agricultural sector based mitigation strategies are discussed It is further argued however that such interventions need to be complemented by interventions from the health and other sectors in particular by treatment regimes including access to anti retroviral drugs The text is followed by an annotated bibliography

Mainstreaming HIV and AIDS in Sectors & Programmes Joseph Annan,2005 AIDS on the Agenda Sue Holden,2003 AIDS on the Agenda is written for policymakers managers and program staff in development and humanitarian agencies to promote debate about the challenges that confront them in a world which has been changed for ever by the pandemic of AIDS The book considers three possible responses to the problem Do nothing Try to specialize in direct AIDS work Adapt core programs and internal systems to respond to the impact of AIDS The author argues for the third approach as the essential initial response She shows how mainstream work in a wide range of sectors including food security livelihoods support education health promotion and emergency provision of water and sanitation can be modified to reduce susceptibility to HIV infection and vulnerability to the impacts of AIDS She also offers practical advice on modifying personnel and financial systems to protect the interests of staff and the viability of organizations when operating in AIDS prone contexts The text is based on case studies drawn from the experiences of three agencies ActionAid Oxfam International and Save the Children UK and their partners and on insights contributed by a wide range of other organizations The problems inherent in the mainstreaming approach are dealt with frankly and constructively The comprehensive Resources section offers user friendly guidance on the following topics Researching and predicting the internal impacts of AIDS Assessing the impacts of AIDS education and awareness raising Drafting a workplace policy Monitoring the impact of AIDS and of internal mainstreaming Training for mainstreaming AIDS in development and humanitarian work Undertaking community research for mainstreaming AIDS in development and humanitarian work Adapting organizational systems

Integrated Peacebuilding Craig Zelizer, 2018-04-19. Integrated Peacebuilding addresses the importance of weaving peacebuilding methods into diverse sectors including development, humanitarian assistance, gender, business, media, health and the environment areas where such work is needed the most. Incorporating peacebuilding approaches in these fields is critical for transforming today's protracted conflicts into tomorrow's sustainable peace. Covering both theory and practice, Dr Zelizer and his team of leading academics and practitioners present original essays discussing the infrastructure of the peacebuilding field, outlining key actors, donors and underlying motivations as well as the ethical dilemmas created by modern conflict. Exploring both the challenges and lessons to be found in this emerging field, Integrated Peacebuilding is perfect for courses on peacebuilding, conflict resolution, international development and related fields. American Book Publishing Record, 2003.
