Sourcebook of Treatment Programs for Sexual Offenders William Lamont Marshall, Yolanda M. Fernandez, Stephen M. Hudson, Tony Ward, 2013-11-22. A guide for the design and implementation of treatment programs, the Sourcebook emphasizes clinical issues over research and offers valuable suggestions for dealing with problems that arise in treatment. Contributors from around the world describe their work in prisons, psychiatric institutions, and community settings. Special attention is given to culturally sensitive treatments and to special populations including professionals, clergy, juveniles, women, and the physically challenged.

Assessment and Treatment of Sex Offenders Anthony R. Beech, Leam A. Craig, Kevin D. Browne, 2009-03-04. A comprehensive resource for practitioners working with sexual offenders. Discusses assessments and interventions as well as providing a comprehensive literature review. There are around 10,000 convictions or cautions for sexual offences in the UK each year; early evidence suggests that treatment programmes can halve re-conviction rates. Edited by a University of Birmingham team who are world leaders in researching this area, the subject is of interest worldwide with strong markets in Canada and New Zealand. Includes material on managing offenders with developmental disabilities and those with Dangerous and Severe Personality Disorder.

Violent and Sexual Offenders Jane Ireland, Carol Ireland, Philip Birch, 2018-08-15. Building on the success of the first edition and the growth of research in the field over the past decade, this book offers an authoritative overview of the assessment, treatment, and management of violent and sexual offenders. This new and expanded edition reflects the considerable developments in research and empirical data and captures the increasing breadth of risk assessment approaches, the wider range of empirically based therapies, and the more creative means of considering management. The second edition captures key developments in this area with new chapters drawing on a range of pressing contemporary issues such as female offenders, Internet offenders, terrorists, young people involved in harmful sexual behaviour, and protective factors for aggression. There is also extended coverage of the management of offenders within secure settings and in the community, referring to a wider variety of approaches and the incorporation of technology. This book will be of considerable interest to academics, practitioners, and students engaged with understanding and/or treating violence and aggression, sex crime, forensic psychology, and the assessment, treatment, and management of offenders.
