fit the mould Maisy Fowler knows all about not fitting in it's happened all her life She can't hold down a job she feels inadequate socialising and she's constantly saying and doing things that come across as rude and selfish So when after being fired again someone defecates on the roof of her ex boss's car she immediately gets the blame Maisy cannot believe people would think so low of her and in a desperate need to change her image she applies for a volunteer position in the Scottish Highlands helping people in pain Maisy envisions doing yoga meditating and really being at one with nature What she doesn't imagine is living in a cowshed in the middle of a field where she's pretty certain a cross between a frog and a lion is outside her unlocked door at night waiting to eat her Can sexy farmer Davie Marshall help her through the cold hard nights Two when her romance ends and Maisy realizes she's pregnant the reality of their choices and their differences sets in Maisy knows she will never leave her faith to marry her baby's father But she also knows the road to acceptance as an unwed mother in an Amish community will be long and hard To protect her family from the scandal she goes to live with her cousin in Haven Kansas where she will have some solitude to figure out what kind of future she might have In Haven Maisy begins to find her way thanks in no small part to Joshua Lapp a Plain man who's made it clear he isn't bothered by her situation or ashamed to be seen with her despite the bishop's warnings But Joshua has struggled with his faith ever since the death of his twin brother leaving Maisy to wonder How can two people who are so lost ever help each other discover God's plans for their
