Neon Vernacular Yusef Komunyakaa, 1993-04-30 An award winning poet's testimony of the war in Vietnam Neon Vernacular Yusef Komunyakaa, 1993 An award winning poet's testimony of the war in Vietnam Chryssa & New York Megan Holly Witko, Sophia Larigakis, Michelle White, 2023-03-21 The first major publication in more than thirty years on contemporary artist Chryssa an innovator of light art Chryssa New York offers a timely reassessment of Greek born artist Chryssa Chryssa Vardea Mavromichali 1933 2013 Chryssa was a leading figure in the postwar New York art world and in the use of signage text and neon yet her work which bridges Pop Conceptual and Minimalist approaches to art making remains under recognized Focusing on the artist's early career in particular her time in New York from the 1950s to the 1970s this book charts the emergence of her singular aesthetic especially her formal innovations with neon and culminates in the development of her monumental and rarely seen installation The Gates to Times Square 1964 66 Essays situate Chryssa's art alongside that of other New York based practitioners in the 1950s and 1960s consider her work through the lenses of queer theory and the Greek diaspora and uncover her crucial influence on light art today Rounding out the volume a conversation on the technical aspects of her practice and a comprehensive chronology make this the definitive publication on Chryssa for years to come Distributed for Dia Art Foundation and the Menil Collection Houston Exhibition Schedule Dia Chelsea New York March 2 July 23 2023 Menil Collection Houston September 29 2023 March 10 2024 Wrightwood 659 Chicago May 1 August 15 2024 Southbound Ernest Suarez, T. W. Stanford, Amy Verner, 1999 There's a real flowering I think of southern poetry right now assembling at the edges of everything This observation by Pulitzer Prize winning poet Charles Wright reflects upon the continuing vibrancy and importance of the southern poetic tradition Although the death of James Dickey in 1997 left southern poetry without a recognizably dominant voice an array of other vibrant voices continue to be heard and recognized Southbound Interviews with Southern Poets provides a glimpse of the many poets who promise to keep southern poetry vital into the twenty first century The Oxford Anthology of African-American Poetry Arnold Rampersad, Hilary Herbold, 2006 Presents a comprehensive anthology of African American poetry covering over two centuries and includes selections by Langston Hughes Gwendolyn Brooks W E B Du Bois and many more Flashback Through the Heart Angela M. Salas, 2004 In doing so the author seeks to convince readers that Komunyakaa has never been solely interested in dealing with the complexities of race in his work although he does so to stunning effect in such works as Dien Cai Dau a volume invoking the horrors of the war in Vietnam Jacket Flickering Light Christoph Ribbat, 2013-07-15 Without neon Las Vegas might still be a sleepy desert town in Nevada and Times Square merely another busy intersection in New York City Transformed by the installation of these brightly colored signs these destinations are now world famous representing the vibrant heart of popular culture But for some neon lighting represents the worst of commercialism Energized by the conflicting love and hatred people have for neon Flickering Light explores its technological and intellectual history from the discovery of the noble gas in late nineteenth century London to its fading popularity today Christoph Ribbat follows writers artists and musicians from cultural critic Theodor Adorno British rock band the Verve and artist Tracey Emin to Vladimir Nabokov Langston Hughes and American country singers through the neon cities in Europe America and Asia demonstrating how they turned these blinking lights and letters into metaphors of the modern era He examines how gifted craftsmen carefully sculpted neon advertisements introducing elegance to modern metropolises during neon s heyday between the wars followed by its subsequent popularity in Las Vegas during the 1950s and 60s Ribbat ends with a melancholy discussion of neon s decline describing how these glowing signs and installations came to be seen as dated and characteristic of run down neighborhoods From elaborate neon lighting displays to neglected diner signs with unlit letters Flickering Light tells the engrossing story of how a glowing tube of gas took over the world and faded almost as quickly as it arrived This Part Is Silent SJ Kim,2024-04-16 Longlisted for the 2025 Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction A searing essay collection that explores displacement and loss creativity and change institutional power and progress Born in Korea raised in the American South and trying her best to survive British academia SJ Kim probes her experiences as a writer a scholar and a daughter to confront the silences she finds in the world With curiosity and sensitivity she writes letters to the institutions that simultaneously support and fail her intimate accounts of immigration and interrogations of rising anti Black and anti Asian racism She considers the silences between generations especially within the Asian diaspora in the West as she finds her way back to her own family during the pandemic lockdown Embracing the possibilities and impossibilities of language Kim rejoices in the similes of Korean her mother tongue and draws inspiration from K dramas and writers across cultures who sustain her As borders close in and nations enter lockdown the journey that Kim traces is fraught and at once illuminates that the act of remaining present has its own power allowing boundless hope Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research The

New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship
