Marketing Literature and Posthumous Legacies Yuri Leving, Frederick H. White, 2013-09-12 Literature is not only about aesthetics but also almost equally about economics The successful marketing of an author and his literary works is more dependent on the activities of cultural merchants than on the particular words and phrases found in the author s prose Marketing Literature and Posthumous Legacies focuses on the creation of symbolic capital for the literary legacies of Leonid Andreev and Vladimir Nabokov that was eventually exchanged by cultural merchants for financial and ideological profit Yuri

Leving and Frederick H White discuss the ways in which certain cultural merchants created symbolic meaning for these two authors through a process of collusion consecration and the marketing of tangible and intangible products that lead to some sort of transaction The promotion and maintenance of posthumous legacies involves an intricate network of personal interests that drive the preservation of literary reputations National Union Catalog ,1968 Includes entries for maps and atlases French News ,1960 Boris Pasternak Guy de Mallac,1983 The Family Novel Yi-ling Ru,1992 This book is a comparative study of the family novel as a distinctive literary genre It concentrates on three prototypical family novels the Chinese trilogy The Turbulent Trilogy 1906 1940 by Pa Chin the British trilogy The Forsyte Saga 1906 1921 by John Galsworthy and the French novel Les Thibault 1922 1940 by Roger Martin du Gard The book argues for the establishment of a new generic category the Family Novel as a sub genre of the novel It describes the four distinctive characteristics its realism and use of chronology its sense of ritual and community the centrality of family conflict and its unique form Nobel Prize Library V.13: Roger Martin Du Gard, Gabriela Mistral, Boris Pasternak Nobel Foundation, Nobel Prize Library ,1971
