Nobility, Tragedy, and Naturalism Joseph James Chambliss, 1982 Nobility, Tragedy & Naturalism Joseph James Chambliss, 1980 Nobility, Tragedy, and Naturalism Joseph James Chambliss, 1971 A History of the Western Educational Experience Gerald L. Gutek, 1994-12-14 This comprehensive volume examines the impact on education of such momentous world events as the ascendancy of neo Conservatism the collapse of the Soviet system the end of the Cold War the reunification of Germany and the resurgence of ethnonationalism It creates an historical perspective by identifying and analyzing the significant formative ideas and institutions that have shaped the Western educational heritage A Brief History of Education Francesco Cordasco, 1976 A concise overview of educational practices throughout history and the world The Hammer and the Flute Mary Keller, 2005-04-14 Award for the Best First Book in the History of Religions from the American Academy of Religion Feminist theory and postcolonial theory share an interest in developing theoretical frameworks for describing and evaluating subjectivity comparatively especially with regard to non autonomous models of agency As a historian of religions Mary Keller uses the figure of the possessed woman to analyze a subject that is spoken through rather than speaking and whose will is the will of the ancestor deity or spirit that wields her to engage the question of agency in a culturally and historically comparative study that recognizes the prominent role possessed women play in their respective traditions Drawing from the fields of anthropology and comparative psychology Keller brings the figure of the possessed woman into the heart of contemporary argument as an exemplary model that challenges many Western and feminist assumptions regarding agency Proposing a new theoretical framework that re orients scholarship Keller argues that the subject who is wielded or played the hammer or the flute exercises a paradoxical authority instrumental agency born of their radical receptivity their power derives from the communities assessment that they no longer exist as autonomous agents For Keller the possessed woman is at once hammer and flute paradoxically powerful because she has become an instrument of the overpowering will of an ancestor deity or spirit Keller applies the concept of instrumental agency to case studies providing a new interpretation of each She begins with contemporary possessions in Malaysia where women in manufacturing plants were seized by spirits seeking to resacralize the territory She next looks to wartime Zimbabwe where female spirit mediums the Nehanda mhondoro declared the ancestors will to fight against colonialism Finally she provides an imaginative rereading of the performative power of possession by interpreting two plays Euripides Bacchae and S Y Ansky s The Dybbuk which feature possessed women as central characters This book can serve as an excellent introduction to postcolonial and feminist theory for graduate students while grounding its theory in the analysis of regionally and historically specific moments of time that will be of interest to specialists It also provides an argument for the evaluation of religious lives and their struggles for meaning and power in the contemporary landscape of critical theory Nietzsche and the Modern Crisis of the Humanities Peter Levine, 1995-01-01 Levine argues that Strauss and Derrida have much in common

including an idealist reified concept of culture that both inherited from Nietzsche Levine interprets all of Nietzsche's basic doctrines in terms of this concept Nietzsche's definition of culture produced epistemological and moral dilemmas for him and his followers and encouraged them to devise alternatives to mainstream humanities Levine however offers an alternative paradigm of culture that better fits the data and allows us to understand and defend the humanities as a source of value

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 From a Whisper to a Movement Joshua Guitart, Alan Chu, 2025-08-01 Through substantive case studies on issues of human rights this collection of rhetorical investigations engages the interactions among whistleblowers public protest and relationships of power While whistleblowers are commonly viewed as disempowered members of institutions who expose acts of wrongdoing From a Whisper to a Movement argues that whistleblowing acts can occur from an assemblage of persons and places not typically associated with the term This theoretical foundation affords us the ability to substantively interrogate the rhetorical linkage between solitary whistleblowing acts scaffolded around a sense of democratic ethics and the rhetoric of the consequent publics that demand corrective action As mass social protests often emerge from singular moments of discovery the connected discourses expose a unique site within the public forum rich with rhetorical significance While not all whistleblowing utterances prompt public protests and only some protests coalesce around the disclosure of wrongdoing recent history demonstrates that exposed abuses of power often prompt collective action in the name of human rights This volume interrogates how disempowered actors often working alone can inform democratic discourse and global movements
