Elliot Aronson

Nobody Left To Hate Teaching Compassion After Columbine:

Nobody Left to Hate Elliot Aronson, 2001-07 Aronson a social psychologist offers concise practical and easy to apply strategies for creating a more supportive stimulating and compassionate environment in our schools The Martyrs of Columbine Justin Watson, 2002-11-09 On April 20 1999 Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold killed 12 fellow students and one teacher at Columbine High School in Littleton Colorado Two of the victims of the Columbine massacre Cassie Bernall and Rachel Scott reportedly were asked by the gunmen if they believed in God Both allegedly answered Yes and were killed Within days of their death Cassie and Rachel were hailed as modern day Christian martyrs and became useful symbols for those seeking to advance a conservative political agenda According to police investigators however Cassie and Rachel may never have been asked by their killers about God they simply may have been victims of a senseless crime rather than martyrs to a cause As the religious and political use of Cassie and Rachel continues The Martyrs of Columbine provides a careful examination of the available evidence and attempts to discover what really occurred The Social Psychology of Good and Evil, First Edition Arthur G. Miller, 2013-10-24 This compelling work brings together an array of distinguished scholars to explore key concepts theories and findings pertaining to some of the most fundamental issues in social life the conditions under which people are kind and helpful to others or conversely under which they commit harmful even murderous acts Covered are such topics as the complex interaction of individual societal and situational factors underpinning good or evil behavior the role of guilt and the self concept and issues of responsibility and motivation including why good people do bad things The volume also examines whether aggression and violence are inescapable aspects of human nature and how cooperative interaction can break down stereotyping and discrimination Stop Hurting the Woman You Love Charlie Donaldson, Randy Flood, 2010-06-28 A first ever how to book to help abusive men change their behavior by changing their thinking End the cycle of abuse for good Authors Charlie Donaldson Randy Flood and Elaine Eldridge uncover a proven action plan that violent men can use to change their behavior Filled with insightful questionnaires and actual case histories the essential how to book Stop Hurting the Woman You Love will help end abusive patterns in favor of healthier happier relationships Why Kids Kill Peter Langman, 2025-06-25 Ten years after the school massacre at Columbine High School in Colorado school shootings are a new and alarming epidemic While sociologists have attributed the trigger of violence to peer pressure such as bullying and social isolation prominent psychologist Peter Langman argues here that psychological causes are responsible Drawing on 20 years of clinical experience Langman offers surprising reasons for why some teens become violent Langman divides shooters into three categories and he discusses the role of personality trauma and psychosis among school shooters From examining the material evidence of notorious school shooters at Columbine and Virginia Tech to addressing the mental states of the violent youths he treats Langman shows how to identify early signs of homicide prone youth and what preventive measures educators parents and communities can take to protect themselves from the tragedy

Keeping the Promise Samuel Yigzaw,2008-02 For parents teachers administrators and policy makers this is an insider s look at how charter schools successfully challenge the assumption that there is only one model of public education Yigzaw documents the turbulent start up years of Higher Ground Academy the school s continued day to day struggles to stay true to its mission and the accomplishments and rewards they ve already achieved as the school continues to grow and evolve Yigzaw offers a brief history of the charter school movement an in depth discussion of what sets charter schools apart from traditional public schools and a thorough examination of No Child Left Behind the Standards movement and what he sees as the four greatest concerns for modern charter schools

As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross,E. Doyle Stevick,2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical Th is book provides exactly that
