Nobody's Child John Robinson, Brenda Sloggett, 2003 John Robinson's life started terribly. He was taken into care at 4 months then left in abusive foster homes for most of his childhood. At 14 he was sent to a detention centre for arson. Gravitating towards a life of crime, God had other plans for the angry young man. John runs the Eden bus company which travels around Manchester taking the gospel to the streets of youths.

Nobody's Child John Robinson, 2012-07-18 John Robinson had the worst possible start in life. Taken into care at four months old, he was left in abusive foster homes for most of his childhood. At fourteen he was sent to a detention centre for arson. Gravitating towards a life of crime, he moved from borstal to the streets to psychiatric hospital, a scarred, tattooed, broken and angry young man. Yet God had plans for John. He would go on to run the Eden bus ministry, frontline youth buses which travel the toughest parts of Manchester with the gospel. The teams befriend young people and sometimes accompany them to court. My passion is and I pray always will be for those who feel downtrodden, hurt and rejected, says John Robinson. They feel like scum and wake up each day with nothing and no one. I know exactly what that feels like.

Street Smart John Robinson, Jan Greenough, 2011-10-19 Why is there such a distance between the churches and the young people living around them? How can Christians engage with young people? How can they build relationships? How can they plan and develop their youth ministry? What practical skills do they need? For years John worked on Manchester's broken down estates, frequently dealing with aggressive, often drugged or drunk teenagers, and has learned the hard way how to diffuse tension, establish contact quickly, maintain boundaries, and also how to develop relationships over time and establish mutual respect.

The continuing true story of John Robinson the abandoned boy reclaimed by God s infinite grace as first described in Nobody s Child The Boy Who Survived Alton Carter,2019-12-17 At the age of nine Alton Carter left home and walked himself into foster care with a dream of someday having a normal life Not a fancy life Not a famous life But what once was the American dream a place to call home that was warm in the winter and bearable in the summer with regular meals and a loving family that made sure children made it to school on time each day Building on his award winning book The Boy Who Carried Bricks Carter shares more of his own personal childhood stories of trial and survival making the case that youngsters from such homes should be seen for what they are not victims but survivors for they have overcome abuse neglect and violence that would cripple most adults Nobody's Child J. L. Lawrence,2008-08 On a fall day in 1958 my mother put me and six brothers and sisters into a car She took us seventy five miles away from our Harlan County home and then abandoned us on the side of a road amidst the rugged Appalachian Mountains of Eastern Kentucky Shortly thereafter my siblings and I were separated and sent to a foster home and two orphanages I was three years old my youngest brother had just turned one and my oldest brother was not yet thirteen Nobody s Child grew out of an interest in that event and in family tales about a witch and a possible murder It s a story about discovering the author s heritage among the moonshiners coalminers and truck drivers of Eastern Kentucky Most of all it s the true story of a journey to understand the circumstances and the desperation that drove my mother to do what she did and to know what ultimately became of the twenty or so children that my parents brought into this world Hood-Hearted Child, Life as a Nobody Kenneth Whitaker,2009-08 The book is about a little boy The little boy had to grow up thinking that the people around him really truly did love him Only to come to find that all the time that he was growing up they really didnt feel he was their grandson He grew up with all the intention to succeed in life no matter what anyone said or did He made sure that he put his mind into getting better things and helping his family The little boy never let the people around him get to him so that he made it in life The ambition in this boy explains for itself that anyone who has been treated badly when their father has passed can succeed and do anything There is always love for everyone      Nobody's Child G.J. Urquhart, 2020-11-25 Not yet four years old Gloria was forcibly separated from her baby brother Kevin and entered into the often brutal world of the Rothwell Children s Home where she found occasional moments of caring among the toughest of environments In this book we move through Gloria s childhood and learn of the deep friendship of two aunts she meets during the fostering process the twists and turns in her search for Kevin her nervous breakdown and her incarceration in an old Victorian style institution where Gloria is visited by two unfamiliar relatives with whom she is forced to live Aged twenty one Gloria starts independent living allowing her to re establish her friendship with her aunts who reveal her father s identity True love then follows as she meets and marries Robert Urquhart who supports her unwaveringly in her desperate and passionate quest to find her brother This powerful memoir sheds light on what life was like in a 1950s children s home and follows the author on her compelling journey to find happiness and a family of her own
