Nobodys Children:

"Nobody's Children" Rosa Ehrenreich, 1999 To the United Nations      Nobody's Children Elizabeth Bartholet, 2000-11-17 Nobody's Children is an intense look at child welfare policies on abuse and neglect foster care and adoption Elizabeth Bartholet one of the nation's leading experts on family law challenges the accepted orthodoxy that treats children as belonging to their kinship and their racial groups and that locks them into inadequate biological and foster homes She asks us to apply the lessons learned from the battered women's movement as we look at battered children and to question why family preservation ideology still reigns supreme when children rather than adult women are involved Bartholet asks us to take seriously the adoption option She calls on the entire community to take responsibility for its children to think of the children at risk of abuse and neglect as belonging to all of us and to ensure that Nobody's Children become treasured members of somebody's family      Nobody's Children Elizabeth R. Lawrence, 2008-04-01 The orphan trains stopped running in 1929 and the foster care system began Hollywood relieved Depression era problems on the subject with films starring Shirley Temple Room for One More with Cary Grant depicted the need for foster families Blossoms In the Dust starring Greer Garson dealt with the social stigma faced by both the parents and the children Having immigrant parents in the mix added more problems This was my family We were a family torn apart as our parents fought to regain their children while the system held them hostage to the moral tenor of the times Once the State took us a promise was made a promise believed Why in the end did we then feel twice abandoned twice betrayed      Nobody's Children Eddie Kat, 2025-02-01 Eddie and Annie Kat have always loved children but early in their marriage they learned they could not conceive So they chose to foster instead and over the years more than forty children lived in their home They went on to adopt two siblings from the same home and later they began the process of adopting three others from another family Then after nineteen years of marriage they miraculously had their very own child Two years later the Lord opened Annie's womb once again and blessed the couple with their second daughter With the addition of their second baby girl however life in their household began to unravel During this dark time the Lord brought to light some of the evil that had been taking place in the Kat home without their knowledge      Abandoned Children Catherine Panter-Brick, Malcolm T. Haunted Families and Temporal Normativity in Hispanic Horror Films Charles St-Georges, 2018-04-20 This book examines the interactions between ghosts and families in three recent horror films from the Spanish speaking world that rather than explicitly referencing recent political violence speak to the societal conditions and everyday normative violence that serve as preconditions for political violence This study deconstructs intersectional processes of racially and sexually normative subject formation and its oppositional other ghostly erasure that are framed by a common temporal logic wherein full citizenship is contingent upon a nation's dominant notions of contemporaneity and whether individuals properly inhabit prescriptive timelines of re productivity St Georges s study explores ways in which ghosts and families are manipulated in each national imaginary as a strategy for negotiating volatility within symbolic order a tactic that can either naturalize or challenge normative discourses As a literary and cinematic trope ghosts are particularly useful vehicles for the exploration of national imaginaries and the dominant or competing cultural attitudes towards a country s history and thus the articulation of a present political reality The rhetorical figure of the family is also key in this process as a mechanism for expressing national allegories for expressing generational anxieties about a nation s relationship to time and for organizing societies and social subjects as such interpellating them into or excluding them from national imaginaries By proposing these specific coordinates ghosts and families and by mapping their relationship between Spain and Latin America Troubling Timelines proposes a study of a temporal framework that besides bridging the traditional area studies divide across the Atlantic creates a space for interdisciplinary inquiry while also responding to increasing demand for studies that focus on intersectionality
