Nocion De Patria Proximo Projimo:

Noción de patria Mario Benedetti, 1985 Technofuturos Nancy Raquel Mirabal, Agustín Laó-Montes, 2007-04-19

Technofuturos offers a critical and innovative exploration of the forms of representation found in Latino studies. The editors Nancy Raquel Mirabal and Agustín La Montes challenge conventional notions of Latino identities, histories, and cultures by historicizing and differentiating the multiple discourses of Latinidad. The essays examine the temporality and spatiality of socio-historical processes, the multiple and varied constellations of power, and the complicated geographies of desire. By analyzing the discursive, performative, and aesthetic dimensions of knowledge, this book contests and reconstructs Latino studies. Technofuturos is a captivating and sophisticated read that will appeal to scholars of Latino studies and those interested in postcolonial critique.

Noción de patria ; Próximo prójimo Mario Benedetti, 1985 Conversations with Durito Marcos (subcomandante.), 2005

In 1994, from the Lacandon jungle, Zapatista Subcomandante Marcos replied to a ten-year-old girl in Mexico City who had sent him a drawing. In his response, Marcos conjured up a first fable introducing the beetle and knight errant Don Durito de la Lacandon. The ensuing output of Durito-related communiques and tales comprise a broad discourse of the Zapatistas' struggle, revealing their organizational history, their critique of traditional politics, and the reasons for their opposition to neoliberalism. These elements have helped make the Zapatistas an exemplary reference in the international movement against capitalist globalization. Conversations with Durito includes all the Durito stories issued to date, translated, annotated, and contextualized by the Accion Zapatista Editorial Collective and illustrated by simpático artists. Poetic, humorous, and imaginative, these fables provide an excellent introduction to the politics of globalization from the radical perspective of indigenous struggle.

Publisher's website Four Themes in the Poetry of Mario Benedetti Dale Alan Collins, 1993 Contemporary Uruguayan Poetry Ronald Haladyna, 2010

The editor of this anthology addresses this literary omission by identifying seventeen Uruguayans deserving of recognition: Jorge Arbeleche, Nancy Bacelo, Washington Benavides, Mario Benedetti, Amanda Berenguer, Luis Bravo, Selva Casal, Rafael Courtoisie, Marosa Di Giorgio, Enrique Fierro, Alfredo Fressia, Saul Ibargoyen, Circe Maia, Jorge Meretta, Eduardo Milan, Alvaro Miranda, and Salvador Puig. The selection of these poets is based on extensive research and personal taste, but also because they have a recognized, sustained record of published books of poetry, especially during the 1990s; they have been favorably acknowledged for their work by peers and critics through reviews and interviews in local news media; they have received recognition through national or international literary awards; and for the most part, they are still active as poets in the new millennium. Furthermore, they comprise a representative cross-section of diverse generations, perspectives, themes, and poetics extant in today's poetry in Uruguay. Each of the poets is represented by a selection of original poems in Spanish to demonstrate the diversity of their expression, and English translations to render them meaningful for both English and Spanish reading publics. The extensive bibliographies of primary and secondary sources of each poet are unprecedented; hopefully, it will serve as a guide to encourage research on this neglected area of Spanish American literature There is currently no canon of contemporary Uruguayan poets but this project is intended to provide a meaningful step toward opening a discussion of such a canon
