Irish Rugby John Scally,2012-04-13 Based on exclusive interviews with 40 celebrated players past and present Legends of Irish Rugby is a veritable who s who of the sport Immortals such as Jack Kyle Willie John McBride Tony Ward Brian O Driscoll Gordon D Arcy and Paul O Connell bare their souls to reveal themselves as men of vision passion and dedication men who through their glories disappointments and dramatic deeds have inspired others to realise their dreams In this engrossing and entertaining account of the bittersweet history of Irish rugby these powerful personalities offer startling insights into some of the sport's most controversial moments from the assault on Ronan O'Gara during the 2001 Lions tour to Gary Ella's tenure as Leinster coach. They also express their opinions on the most important issues facing the game today from Brian O'Driscoll's hair to the role of the coach and the future of the sport itself. Their take on the times is often as comical as it is insightful. Compelling, informative and humorous, Legends of Irish Rugby is by far the most revealing volume yet on one of the country's favourite sports. William Alwyn Ian Johnson, 2005

Ian Johnson's evaluation of Alwyn's film music places his achievement in the context of wider movements within the film industry. William Alwyn was a leading composer of British film music in the 1940s and 50s, a time when the British film industry was at its peak. His scores ranged from documentaries to almost 80 full-length feature films, including classics such as Fires Were Started, Desert Victory, Odd Man Out, The Fallen Idol and The History of Mr Polly. He was adept at any musical genre from classical to cartoon slapstick and in the process worked with legendary directors including Carol Reed, David Lean, Humphrey Jennings and Anthony Asquith. Alone with Vaughan Williams, he was granted the distinction of a separate title credit. Columnists mentioned him alongside Bliss, Bax and Walton. However, as the reputation of the British film industry declined in the 1950s, so did musical snobbery against those who were its leading lights. He became unpleasantly raw. In recent years, however, with sensitive performances of his film and concert music available on CD, this most appealing of composers has enjoyed something of a renaissance. In this long overdue reassessment, Alwyn's films are analysed and put into the context of his biography, the film industry and of society at large. The author shows in particular this remarkably versatile composer developed a hitherto unrecognised grammar of film music which enhanced every film on which he worked. He also examines his work for war propaganda radio and the concert hall. The volume is enhanced by the most complete filmography, discography and bibliography of the composer's works yet published, as well as listings of his concert and radio music. The Irish Reports, 1928
