compatriots and numerous lovers Samuel Johnson Prize winning biographer Philip Hoare has produced an illuminating and sophisticated biography of Coward whose relentless drive for success and approval fueled the stunning bursts of creativity that launched the once painfully middle class boy from the suburbs of London into a pantheon of theatrical deities that includes Gilbert and Sullivan Oscar Wilde and George Bernard Shaw As much the embodiment of a lifestyle as an actual inhabitant of it Coward s carefully cultivated image defined the aspirations of untold numbers of actors artists and writers who succeeded him and Hoare s meticulously researched biography peels away the layers of this complex persona to reveal the man underneath it all whom The Times London decreed upon his death to be the most versatile of all the great figures of the English theater Miracles : 2 Volumes Craig S. rarely empty phantasies Whereas intellectual concepts are conscious constructions of abstracted relations mental images evoked by texts and pictures often point like dreams to pre verbal experience that patterns itself through multiplying associations and analogies These mental images can also manifest their own limits pointing indirectly to experiences beyond what can be expressed and communicated The six essays in this volume seek to uncover the dynamic patterns in verbal and pictorial images and to evaluate their potentialities and limitations Thematically ordered according to their specific focus the essays begin with material images and move on to increasing degrees of immateriality The subjects treated are verbal descriptions of an icon and of a statue imaginative visions and auditions evoked by material depictions verbal imagery describing imagined sculptures and scenes as compared with drawings of a moving historical pageant drawings of symbolic figures representing subtle relationships between verbal expositions that cannot be syntactically represented dream images that precipitate actual healing and aural patterns in a sounded text that are experienced as images of affective dynamisms
