USA, India, Africa During and After the Cold War Okoth, Pontian Godfrey, 2015-03-16 The Cold War period witnessed competition from political economic ideological diplomatic military and social dimensions between the United States of America USA and the then Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR In the superpower rivalries India and Africa were adversely affected in many ways The situation did not change for the better in the post Cold War period which has witnessed the domination of the world by the US and its allies the Group of Eight G 8 industrialised countries This domination has been characterised by the process of Americanization of the world's otherwise termed globalisation in virtually all spheres of life USA India Africa During and After the Cold War demonstrates that both the United States and The Soviet Union used African States India and other Third World countries for their own geopolitical considerations that the foreign policy and foreign relations of the US were meant to subject Africa and India to the dictates of US imperialism The book assesses the impact of the Cold War and the post Cold War order on Africa India and the entire world and argues that the Non Aligned Movement is still relevant to the Third World countries despite the demise of the Cold War The book analyses issues from the African point of view as opposed to hitherto Western view points but provides a balanced appreciation of the complex forces that shape foreign policies and foreign relations globally It is a valuable contribution to modern diplomatic history and targets university students researchers foreign affairs ministries and practicing diplomats

Non-Aligned Movement Summits Jovan Cavoški, 2022-05-19 Using newly declassified documents from Serbian British Indian Chinese Myanmar U S and Soviet archives Non Aligned Movement Summits shows how the Non Aligned Movement NAM gradually evolved into the third force of Cold War politics enveloping most of the post colonial and non bloc world Jovan Cavo ki follows the evolution of the NAM through its summits and other gatherings during which major political decisions pertaining to the destiny of the Third World were made These events were scrutinized by all major powers and had a corresponding effect on their policies From the Belgrade Conference in 1961 until 1989 all major Third World and non bloc nations met to demonstrate to the Eastern and Western Blocs that they were independent active and respected participants in world affairs Cavo ki shows how these summits were also closely related to events occurring in the relationship between the two blocs providing opportunities for non bloc actors to influence the global balance of power By moving the focus of 20th century international history away from the bloc nations and instead giving developing nations in Africa and Asia due attention this book provides a fresh perspective on Cold War history and fills a significant gap in the literature It is an important study for all students and scholars of the Cold War and international history

Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non-Aligned Movement Paul Stubbs, 2023-01-15 After a summit in Belgrade in September 1961 socialist Yugoslavia led by President Josip Broz Tito until his death in 1980 initiated a movement with states in the Global South The Non Aligned Movement not only offered an alternative to the Cold War polarization between NATO and the Warsaw Pact but also expressed the hopes of a world emerging from colonial domination Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non Aligned Movement investigates the Non Aligned Movement both as a top down interstate initiative and as a site for transnational exchange in science art and culture architecture education and industry Re invigorating older debates by consulting newly available sources the volume challenges studies that marginalize the role of socialist Yugoslavia in the Non Aligned Movement Contributors address topics such as women s involvement antifascism and anti imperialism cultural and educational exchange tensions in Yugoslav diplomacy competing understandings of economic development the role of the Yugoslav construction company Energoprojekt Yugoslav relations with Latin America and Africa and contemporary support for refugees and asylum seekers as a kind of practical and affective afterlife of Yugoslavia s non aligned commitments

The Non-Aligned Movement and the Cold War Natasa Miskovic, Harald Fischer-Tiné, Nada Boskovska, 2014-04-16 The idea of non alignment and peaceful coexistence was not new when Yugoslavia hosted the Belgrade Summit of the Non Aligned in September 1961 Freedom activists from the colonies in Asia Africa and South America had been discussing such issues for decades already but this long lasting context is usually forgotten in political and historical assessments of the Non Aligned Movement This book puts the Non Aligned Movement into its wider historical context and sheds light on the long term connections and entanglements of the Afro Asian world It assembles scholars from differing fields of research such as Asian Studies Eastern European and Southeast European History Cold War Studies Middle Eastern Studies and International Relations In doing so this volume looks back to the ideological beginnings of the concept of peaceful coexistence at the time of the anticolonial movements and at the multi faceted challenges of foreign policy the former freedom fighters faced when they established their own decolonized states It analyses the crucial role Yugoslav president Tito played in his determination to keep his country out of the blocs and finally examines the main achievement of the Non Aligned Movement to give subordinate states of formerly subaltern peoples a voice in the international system An innovative look at the Non Aligned Movement with a strong historical component the book will be of great interest to academics working in the field of International Affairs international history of the 20th century the Cold War Race Relations as well as scholars interested in Asian African and Eastern European history

International Relations , Sport and International Understanding M. Ilmarinen,P.V. Komi,A. Koskela,P. Seppänen,R. Telama,P. Vuolle,2012-12-06 In recent years concern has been growing about the preservation of world peace while over the past few decades there has been a vast increase in the amount of international sporting activity and hence more opportunities to advance international understanding and peace It is this situation which caused the Congress on Sport and International Understanding to be convened the idea for it first having arisen after the Helsinki Conference on Security and Co operation in Europe in 1975 The venue for the Congress was as for the Conference on Security and Co operation Finlandia Hall It was held under the auspices of the International Council of Sport and Physical Education ICSPE and was organised by the Finnish member organisations the Finnish Society for Research in Sport and Physical Education organising association Finnish Central Sport Federation SVUL and the Workers Sport Federation TUL The aim of the Congress was to analyse the role of sport in advancing international understanding and to promote research in this field In addition the Congress wished to offer researchers and those involved in sporting activities an opportunity to exchange ideas about the themes under discussion The aim of the Congress was to find the answers to the following questions 1 What forms does international co operation take in present day competitive and top level sport sports for all and other forms of physical culture What is its historical background and future 2 Making Refugees in India Ria

Kapoor,2022 Offering a global history of India's refugee regime Making Refugees in India explores how one of the first postcolonial states during the mid twentieth century wave of decolonisation rewrote global practices surrounding refugees signified by India's refusal to sign the 1951 UN Refugee Convention In broadening the scope of this decision well beyond the Partition of India starting with the so called Wilsonian moment and extending to the 1970s the refugee is placed within the postcolonial effort to address the inequalities of the subject citizenship of the British empire through the fullest realisation of self determination India's strategically ambiguous approach to refugees is thus far from ad hoc revealing a startling consistency when viewed in conversation of postcolonial state building and anti imperial worldmaking to address inequity across the former colonies The anti colonial cry for self determination as the source of all rights it is revealed in this work was in tension with the universal human rights that focused on the individual and the figure of the refugee felt this irreconcilable difference most intensely To elucidate this this work explores contrasts in Indians and Europeans rights in the British empire and in World War Two refugee rehabilitation during Partition the arrival of the Tibetan refugees and the East Pakistani refugee crisis Ria Kapoor finds that the refugee was constitutive of postcolonial Indian citizenship and that assistance permitted to refugees a share of the rights guaranteed by self determination depended on their potential to threaten or support national sovereignty that allowed Indian experiences to be included in the shaping of universal principles
