Freedom Time Gary Wilder, 2015-02-14 Freedom Time reconsiders decolonization from the perspectives of Aim C saire Martinique and L opold S dar Senghor Senegal who beginning in 1945 promoted self determination without state sovereignty As politicians public intellectuals and poets they struggled to transform imperial France into a democratic federation with former colonies as autonomous members of a transcontinental polity In so doing they revitalized past but unrealized political projects and anticipated impossible futures by acting as if they had already arrived Refusing to reduce colonial emancipation to national independence they regarded decolonization as an opportunity to remake the world reconcile peoples and realize humanity s potential Emphasizing the link between politics and aesthetics Gary Wilder reads C saire and Senghor as pragmatic utopians situated humanists and concrete cosmopolitans whose postwar insights can illuminate current debates about self management postnational politics and planetary solidarity Freedom Time invites scholars to decolonize intellectual history and globalize critical theory to analyze the temporal dimensions of political life and to question the territorialist assumptions of contemporary historiography
