REGRESO A UNA HISTORIA OLVIDADA

Steven W. Hackel

Nootka Regreso A Una Historia Olvidada:

Nootka Mercedes Palau Baquero, Marisa Calés, Araceli Barbosa Sánchez, 1998 At the Far Reaches of Empire Freeman M. Tovell, 2009-01-01 Capitán de Navío Juan Francisco de la Bodega y Quadra was the most important Spanish naval officer on the Northwest Coast in the eighteenth century. Serving from 1774 to 1794, he participated in the search for the Northwest Passage and with George Vancouver endeavored to forge a diplomatic resolution to the Nootka Sound controversy between Spain and Britain. Freeman Tovell's thorough and nuanced study presents this officer of Spain's Enlightened Navy as a key figure in the history of the region. Intelligent, observant, and literate, Bodega received high praise from the viceroys of New Spain under whom he served. His enlightened policy toward the Nuuchahnulth and his close association with Chief Maquinna are a matter of record. Bodega was not without his imperfections: when his overarching ambition to make a name for himself exceeded his financial reach, he incurred ruinous debts. As a Peruvian creole, he also struggled against the glass ceiling imposed by having been born outside Spain. Despite constant efforts for promotions, he never gained the full recognition from naval and political superiors that his achievements deserved. Bodega's accomplishments place him in the company of Bering, Cook, Vancouver, La Perouse, and Malaspina: those who advanced a better understanding of the geography, ethnography, and natural history of the area. The most complete study of Bodega and his epoch yet written, At the Far Reaches of Empire is an absorbing narrative of eighteenth-century empire building. Alta California Steven W. Hackel, 2010-11-16 A set of probing and fascinating essays by leading scholars, Alta California illuminates the lives of missionaries and Indians in colonial California. With unprecedented depth and precision, the essays explore the interplay of race and culture among the diverse peoples adapting to the radical transformations of a borderland uneasily shared by natives and colonizers. Alan Taylor, author of The Divided Ground: Indians, Settlers, and the Northern Borderland of the American Revolution. In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, the missions of California and the communities that sprang up around them constituted a unique laboratory where ethnic, imperial, and national identities were molded and transformed. A group of distinguished scholars examine these identities through a variety of sources, ranging from mission records and mitochondrial DNA to the historical memory of California's early history. Andrés Reséndez, author of Changing National Identities at the Frontier: Texas and New Mexico, 1800-1850. En la costa de la niebla Fernando Monge, 2002 Spain in the Age of Exploration, 1492-1819 Chiyo Ishikawa, Seattle Art Museum, 2004-01-01 This publication accompanies an exhibition of approximately 120 works of art and science loaned mostly from the Royal Collection of Spain, Patrimonio Nacional, to the Seattle Art Museum. Featuring the work of such artists as Bosch, Titian, El Greco, Bernini, Velázquez, Murillo, Zúbarán, and Goya, this publication includes paintings, sculpture, tapestries, scientific instruments, maps, armor, books, and documents. Eight essays provide historical context and artistic explication. Chronologically organized, the book charts the evolution of Spanish attitudes toward knowledge, exploration, and faith during three dynasties of Spain's golden age when the fervor for scientific and geographical knowledge coexisted with the expansion of empire and promotion of Christianity The four themes of the exhibition are The Image of Empire Spirituality and Worldliness Encounters across Cultures Science and the Court Spain in the Age of Exploration 1492 1819 presents art and science from one of the most ambitious magnificent and complex enterprises in history

Negotiating Knowledge in Early Modern Empires L. Kontler, A. Romano, S. Sebastiani, B. Török, 2014-12-17 This volume takes a decentered look at early modern empires and rejects the center periphery divide With an unconventional geographical set of cases including the Holy Roman Empire the Habsburg Iberian French and British empires as well as China contributors seize the spatial dynamics of the scientific enterprise
