Cheng, 2013-04-30 Lu Xun 1881-1936 arguably twentieth century China's greatest writer is commonly cast in the mold of a radical iconoclast who vehemently rejected traditional culture The contradictions and ambivalence so central to his writings however are often overlooked Challenging conventional depictions Eileen J Cheng's innovative readings capture Lu Xun's disenchantment with modernity and his transformative engagements with traditional literary conventions in his modern experimental works. Lurking behind the ambiguity at the heart of his writings are larger questions on the effects of cultural exchange, accommodation and transformation that Lu Xun grappled with as a writer. How can a culture estranged from its vanishing traditions come to terms with its past? How can a culture severed from its roots and alienated from the foreign conventions it appropriates conceptualize its own present and future? Literary Remains shows how Lu Xun's own literary encounter with the modern involved a sustained engagement with the past. His creative writings, which imitate, adapt and parody traditional literary conventions, represent and mirror the trauma of cultural disintegration in content and in form. His contradictory, uncertain and at times bizarrely incoherent narratives refuse to conform to conventional modes of meaning-making or teleological notions of history, opening up imaginative possibilities for comprehending the past and present without necessarily reifying them. Behind Lu Xun's refusal to mourn—that is, his insistence on keeping the past and the dead alive in writing—lies an ethical claim to recover the redemptive meaning of loss. Like a solitary wanderer keeping vigil at the site of destruction, he sifts through the debris, composing epitaphs to mark both the presence and absence of that which has gone before and will soon come to pass. For in the rubble of what remains, he recovered precious gems of illumination through which to assess, critique and transform the moment of the present. Literary Remains shows how Lu Xun's literary enterprise is driven by a radical hope that, in spite of the destruction he witnessed and the limits of representation, his writings, like the texts that inspired his own, might somehow capture glimmers of the past and the present and illuminate a future yet to unfold. Literary Remains will appeal to a wide audience of students and scholars interested in Lu Xun, modern China, cultural studies and world literature.

Education and Sustainability Seonaigh MacPherson, 2011-04-29 This book critically examines the impact of migration, education, development and the spread of English on global bio-linguistic and cultural diversity. Derived from findings from a comparative eco-linguistic study of intergenerational language, culture and education change in the Tibetan Diaspora, the book extends its analysis to consider the plight of other peoples who find themselves straddling the Indigenous Minority Diaspora divide. MacPherson explores the overlapping and distinctive sustainability challenges facing indigenous and minority communities when they are connected by and within diasporas and seeks to adequately explain the discontinuities and disjunctures between their educational struggles and achievement levels. AB Bookman's Weekly, 1992
