The Publishers Weekly ,1999 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1925 Norse Greenland: Viking Peasants in the Arctic Arnved Nedkvitne,2018-10-11 How could a community of 2000 3000 Viking peasants survive in Arctic Greenland for 430 years ca 985 1415 and why did they finally disappear European agriculture in an Arctic environment encountered serious ecological challenges The Norse peasants faced these challenges by adapting agricultural practices they had learned from the Atlantic and North Sea coast of Norway Norse Greenland was the stepping stone for the Europeans who first discovered America and settled briefly in Newfoundland ca AD 1000 The community had a global significance which surpassed its modest size In the last decades scholars have been nearly unanimous in emphasising that long term climatic and environmental changes created a situation where Norse agriculture was no longer sustainable and the community was ruined A secondary hypothesis has focused on ethnic confrontations between Norse peasants and Inuit hunters In the last decades ethnic violence has been on the rise in Eastern Europe the Middle East and parts of Africa In some cases it has degenerated into ethnic cleansing This has strengthened the interest in ethnic violence in past societies Challenging traditional hypotheses is a source of progress in all science The present book does this on the basis of relevant written and archaeological material respecting the methodology of both sciences Collier's Once a Week ,1927 The Insistence of God John D. Caputo,2013-09-13 A tour de force provocative ideas expressed in Heideggerian Derridean and Deleuzian rhetoric for a new wave of Christian theologians Bibliographia The Insistence of God presents the provocative idea that God does not exist God insists God s existence is a human responsibility which may or may not happen For John D Caputo God s existence is haunted by perhaps which does not signify indecisiveness but an openness to risk to the unforeseeable Perhaps constitutes a theology of what is to come and what we cannot see coming Responding to current critics of continental philosophy Caputo explores the materiality of perhaps and the promise of the world He shows how perhaps can become a new theology of the gaps God opens John D Caputo is at the top of his game and he is not content to reiterate what he has already expressed but continues to develop his own ideas further by way of a thorough engagement with the fields of theology Continental philosophy and religious thought Clayton Crockett University of Central Arkansas For those allergic to theological certainty whether of God s existence or of God s death Caputo delivers storm fresh relief the theopoetics of God s insistence Catherine Keller Drew University In my life I have read no more stimulating book of theology Buckle your seatbelt Dialog An excellent text that opens the way into new forms of theological thinking He puts forward an argument that must be wrestled with and brings to light new avenues for both religious and theological thought Caputo is not for the faint of heart Reviews in Religion and Theology Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1969 Preparing for Death, Remembering the Dead Tarald Rasmussen,Jon Øygarden Flæten,2015-04-22 Death and dying were not in the main focus of the denominational conflicts of the 16th century However pious literature covered these topics again and again not only before the Reformation but after it as well Here certain denominational differences are clearly visible Partly these differences consist in the use of genres For example funeral sermons are an often used genre among Lutherans while they are much rarer in the Reformed tradition Similar differences can be observed concerning epitaphs In Roman Catholic areas funeral sermons and epitaphs are common in the 16th century too but their religious function is often a different from the one in Lutheranism Beyond such interdenominational differences there are also interesting continuities and connections which the contributors of the volume analyze For example there is a certain continuity between 16th century Lutheran funeral sermons and the late medieval tradition of ars moriendi The volume contains papers presented at the Second RefoRC Conference in Oslo in 2012 and is characterized by a multiconfessional and multidisciplinary approach with contributions from Church History Art History Archaeology History of Literature and Cultural History Within a field of research dominated by specialized contributions e g on ars moriendi traditions or on specific traditions of funeral monuments and funeral sermons the broad approach of this volume may further stimulate to comparative and cross confessional reflection
