Wörterbuch Jacob Grimm,1889 "Das" Kränzchen ,1892 German National Cinema Sabine Hake,2013-01-11

German National Cinema is the first comprehensive history of German film from its origins to the present In this new edition Sabine Hake discusses film making in economic political social and cultural terms and considers the contribution of Germany's most popular films to changing definitions of genre authorship and film form The book traces the central role of cinema in the nation's turbulent history from the Wilhelmine Empire to the Berlin Republic with special attention paid to the competing demands of film as art entertainment and propaganda Hake also explores the centrality of genre films and the star system to the development of a filmic imaginary This fully revised and updated new edition will be required reading for everyone interested in German film and the history of modern Germany Routledge Library Editions: Phonetics and Phonology

Various,2021-07-14 This set of 23 volumes originally published between 1952 and 1996 amalgamates a wide breadth of research on the subject of phonetics and phonology including studies on the axiomatic method nonlinear phonology and prosodic phonology This collection of books from some of the leading scholars in the field provides a comprehensive overview of the subject how it has evolved over time and will be of particular interest to students of language and linguistics

German Pronunciation and Phonology Jethro Bithell,2018-10-29 First published in 1952 This book does not confine itself to German phonetics it aims rather at showing by what processes and tricks of sound words have been shaped in the course of years it is therefore a book on phonology as well It should have a wide appeal to students of German Moreover since the treatment of laws and sound processes is comparative it will be useful to students of other languages particularly of the Scandinavian group and Dutch Psychotherapy Research Omar C.G. Gelo,Alfred Pritz,Bernd Rieken,2014-12-24 This book provides readers with essential information on the foundations of psychotherapy research and on its applications to the study of both psychotherapy process and outcome The aim is to stimulate a reflection on these issues in a way that will benefit researchers and clinicians as well as undergraduate and graduate students at different levels and from different perspectives Accordingly the book presents a balanced mix of chapters summarizing the state of the art in the field from different viewpoints and covering innovative topics and perspectives reflecting some of the most established traditions and at the same time emerging approaches in the field in several countries The contributors who were invited from among the experts in our national and international professional networks also represent a healthy mix of leading figures and young researchers The first part of the book addresses a number of fundamental issues in psychotherapy research at a historical philosophical and theoretical level The second part of the book is concerned with research on psychotherapy processes in this regard both quantitative and qualitative approaches are given equal consideration in order to reflect the growing relevance of the latter The book s third and last part examines research on psychotherapy outcomes primarily focusing on quantitative approaches Offering a balanced mix of perspectives approaches and topics the book represents a valuable tool for anyone interested in psychotherapy research

East Asian-German Cinema Joanne Miyang Cho,2021-09-29 This is the first edited volume dedicated to the study of East Asian German cinema Its coverage ranges from 1919 to the present a period which has witnessed an unprecedented degree of global entanglement between Germany and East Asia In analyzing this hybrid cinema this volume employs a transnational approach which highlights the nations cinematic encounters and entanglements It reveals both German perceptions of East Asia and East Asian perceptions of Germany through analysis of works by both German directors and East Asian East Asian German directors It is hoped that this volume will not only accelerate cross cultural exchange but also provide a wider perspective that helps film scholars to see the broader contexts in which these films are produced It introduces multiple compelling topics not just immigration multiculturalism and exile but also Japonisme children s literature musical modernity media hybridity gender representation urban space Cold War divisions and national identity It addresses several genres feature films essay films and documentary films Lastly by embracing three East Asian cinemas in one volume this volume serves as an excellent introduction for German cinema students and scholars It will appeal to international and interdisciplinary audiences as its contributors represent multiple disciplines and four world regions
