Norman Bethune The Doctor Who Served:

Norman Bethune Tom McCarthy, Johnston, Krista, 1982-01-01 The Good Doctors John Dittmer, 2017-01-31 In the summer of 1964 medical professionals mostly white and northern organized the Medical Committee for Human Rights MCHR to provide care and support for civil rights activists organizing black voters in Mississippi They left their lives and lucrative private practices to march beside and tend the wounds of demonstrators from Freedom Summer the March on Selma and the Chicago Democratic Convention of 1968 Galvanized and sometimes radicalized by their firsthand view of disenfranchised communities the MCHR soon expanded its mission to encompass a range of causes from poverty to the war in Vietnam They later took on the whole of the United States healthcare system MCHR doctors soon realized fighting segregation would mean not just caring for white volunteers but also exposing and correcting shocking inequalities in segregated health care They pioneered community health plans and brought medical care to underserved or unserved areas Though education was the most famous battleground for integration the appalling injustice of segregated health care levelled equally devastating consequences Award winning historian John Dittmer author of the classic civil rights history Local People The Struggle for Civil Rights in Mississippi has written an insightful and moving account of a group of idealists who put their careers in the service of the motto Health Care Is a Human Right A Doctor's Quest Gretchen Roedde, 2019-02-16 A doctor grapples with the challenges of mother and child health in the developing world Recounting medical missions in one third of the forty five countries in which she has worked for the past thirty years in Africa Asia and the Caribbean and the South Pacific Dr Gretchen Roedde shares the grim reality of world politics and bureaucratic red tape on the front lines as a doctor in mother and child health and HIV AIDS This second edition updates the progress in reproductive maternal newborn child and adolescent health RMNCAH with additional studies in Afghanistan Laos South Sudan and Nigeria It tells the stories of the hopes of village women struggling to give birth safely of their often corrupt leaders and of countries trying to bring evil despots to justice Roedde analyzes the encouraging momentum in global maternal health while maintaining a focus on equity disparities within and between countries The Politics of Passion Norman Bethune, 1998-05-01 The Politics of Passion is the first comprehensive collection of the writing and art of Dr Norman Bethune A Canadian medical pioneer and a communist Bethune gained fame during the 1930s while serving in the Spanish Civil War and participating in China's struggle against Japanese invasion This book sheds light on the man the artist and the revolutionary It uncovers new historical material relating to several controversies surrounding Bethune A remarkable document obtained from the Communist International Archives in Moscow for instance discusses why Bethune was sent home in disgrace from the Spanish Civil War It refers to a mysterious Swedish woman Kajsa von Rothman who was Bethune's lover and who was believed by left wing Spanish authorities to be politically suspect This collection of Bethune's writings and art reveals that politics preoccupied him only during the last four years of his life Earlier his passionate nature found expression in medical and surgical innovation as well as in painting sketching photography writing from poetry and short stories to letters radio broadcasts and plays and public speaking The Politics of Passion reveals the many sides of Bethune s identity exploring not only the life of a revolutionary doctor but of an intense and compassionate artist

The International Medical Relief Corps in Wartime China, 1937-1945 Robert Mamlok, M.D.,2018-09-21 Both before and during World War II the Nazis restricted the rights of Jewish and communist doctors Some fought back first by fighting against Fascism in the Spanish Civil War and then by helping the Chinese in their struggle against Japan There were however two rival factions in China One favored Chiang Kai shek the nationalists and the other the communists and 27 foreign medical personnel were caught between them Amidst poverty war and corruption living conditions were poor and traveling was hazardous This book follows members of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Relief Corps through the war as they became enemy aliens and pursued their work despite the perils These doctors had a keen sense of public health needs and contributed to the recognition and management of infectious diseases and nutritional disorders all the while denouncing corruption inhumanity and inequality

Contested Spaces, Counter-Narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada Roxanne Rimstead, Domenico A. Beneventi, 2019-02-28 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Qu bec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Qu b cois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space

Goodness Not Grief: Autobiography Of Yean Leng Lim Yean Leng Lim, 2014-07-04 A biography of the author s background which provides insight into his training in medicine and his opinions on the concepts and training that are necessary to be a good doctor The aims of this book are to first show how coronary angioplasty was pioneered in Australia Singapore and China Second it is to illustrate the founding of a long awaited medical school in Xiamen China where the author s ancestors originate Third it is to describe the reformation of healthcare cardiology medical research and Art academy in Singapore Fourth it is to demonstrate the vision and realization of the third Asia Pacific cardiovascular intervention block Last but not least this book describes the merging of East West culture medicine art and a personal Christian testimony This book hopes to show that with hard work determination and vision any young man or woman should be able to write a similar life story of their own It is particularly important for young doctors to learn how not to bring grief but goodness to their patients and relatives This book also illustrates the history of the development of coronary intervention in China and the rise of the Asia Pacific region in this field Finally this book provides a unique personal perspective in the convergence of Eastern and Western culture medicine and art Bethune's Time: White Men Seeking Grace Martin Avery,2014-05-01 Imagine going back in time to meet the Canadian doctor and Chinese hero Norman Bethune

Magical realism by the author of the Bethune Trilogy The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures Aga Skrodzka,Xiaoning Lu,Katarzyna Marciniak,2020-04-01 Stereotypes often cast communism as a defunct bankrupt ideology and a relic of the distant past However recent political movements like Europe s anti austerity protests the Arab Spring and Occupy Wall Street suggest that communism is still very much relevant and may even hold the key to a new idealized future In The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures contributors trace the legacies of communist ideology in visual culture from buildings and monuments murals and sculpture to recycling campaigns and wall newspapers all of which work to make communism s ideas and values material Contributors work to resist the widespread demonization of communism demystifying its ideals and suggesting that it has visually shaped the modern world in undeniable and complex ways Together contributors answer curcial questions like What can be salvaged and reused from past communist experiments How has communism impacted the cultures of late capitalism And how have histories of communism left behind visual traces of potential utopias An interdisciplinary look at the cultural currency of communism today The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures demonstrates the value of revisiting the practices of the past to form a better vision of the future The Scalpel, the Sword Ted Allan,Sydney Gordon,2009-05-11 Originally published in the early 1950s The Scalpel the Sword celebrates the turbulent career of Dr Norman Bethune 1890 1939 a brilliant surgeon campaigner against private medicine communist and graphic artist Bethune belonged to that international contingent of individuals who recognized the threat of fascism in the world and went out courageously to try to defeat it Born in Gravenhurst Ontario Bethune introduced innovative techniques in treating battlefield injuries and pioneered the use of blood transfusions to save lives which made him a legend first in Spain during the civil war and later in China when he served with the armies of Mao Zedong in their fight against the invading Japanese He is today remembered amongst the pantheon of Chinese revolutionary heroes In Canada Bethune s strong left wing views made him persona non grata but this highly readable and engaging account has helped to sustain the memory of a great man E.J. Pratt Elizabeth Popham,David G. Pitt,2017-01-01 The English Library of the University of Toronto presents information on Canadian poet Edwin John Pratt 1882 The library offers biographical information on Pratt the full text of several of Pratt s poems and a bibliography of his works

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Norman Bethune The Doctor Who Served : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Norman Bethune The Doctor Who Served : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
