success Norman Corwin Wayne Soini,2021-09-27 Called The Poet Laureate of Radio by critics Norman Corwin was the top writer at CBS when CBS reigned supreme in radio and when radio itself dominated public attention This biography tells the story of Norman s unlikely rise from a triple decker tenement on Bremen Street in East Boston to the top rung of radio writers during the Golden Age of Radio A self taught writer who never graduated from high school he learned what audiences craved and he gave it to them His nuanced theater of the mind dramas tender love stories and witty comedies were hits talked about long after they were broadcast and when his scripts were published became bestsellers The week after Pearl Harbor Norman s show We Hold These Truths was broadcast to the largest radio audience ever His V E Day broadcast on May 8 1945 On a Note of Triumph made a similarly enduring mark and still constitutes the gold standard for wartime drama The Leonard Bernstein Letters Leonard Bernstein,2020-08-11 With their intellectual brilliance humor and wonderful eye for detail Leonard Bernstein s letters blow all biographies out of the water The Economist 2013 Book of the Year Leonard Bernstein was a charismatic and versatile musician a brilliant conductor who attained international superstar status and a gifted composer of Broadway musicals West Side Story symphonies Age of Anxiety choral works Chichester Psalms film scores On the Waterfront and much more Bernstein was also an enthusiastic letter writer and this book is the first to present a wide ranging selection of his correspondence The letters have been selected for the insights they offer into the passions of his life musical and personal and the extravagant scope of his musical and extra musical activities Bernstein s letters tell much about this complex man his collaborators his mentors and others close to him His galaxy of correspondents encompassed among others Aaron Copland Stephen Sondheim Jerome Robbins Thornton Wilder Boris Pasternak Bette Davis Adolph Green Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and family members including his wife Felicia and his sister Shirley The majority of these letters have never been published before They have been carefully chosen to demonstrate the breadth of Bernstein s musical interests his constant struggle to find the time to compose his turbulent and complex sexuality his political activities and his endless capacity for hard work Beyond all this these writings provide a glimpse of the man behind the legends his humanity warmth volatility intellectual brilliance wonderful eye for descriptive detail and humor The correspondence from and to the remarkable conductor is full of pleasure and insights The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Exhaustive thrilling and indispensable USA Today starred review The Letters of Malcolm Lowry and Gerald Noxon, 1940-1952 Nancy Strobel,Paul Tiessen,2011-11-01 The eighty letters cards and other messages in this correspondence produced mainly by Lowry and Gerald Noxon but also by Margerie Bonner Lowry offer a fresh introduction to Lowry a certain Canadian Lowry At the same time they give insight into two writing careers Bonner and Noxon closely intertwined with his and vigorously championed by him in the 1940s The letters observe the mind of Lowry at play on questions of literary technique on films and on the beauties and rigors of life in his Dollarton shack on an inlet near Vancouver They reveal a warm supportive enormously sensitive and intelligent man modifying somewhat the image of him now available With their dramatization of Noxon's role in Lowry's writing career they illuminate for the first time something of Lowry's method of actually solving the problems he encountered in re-writing Under the Volcano. Noxon, CBC radio dramatist, novelist and poet, emerges as a talented and perceptive writer who was able to encourage Lowry both morally and practically. Noxon's deftness in expertly combining the unofficial roles of devoted and spirited family member and literary editor gives the letters often brimming with high spirits and fond affection a relaxed and buoyant tone missing from much other Lowry correspondence. Ehrlich, 2011-04-15 As World War II drew to a close and radio news was popularized through overseas broadcasting journalists and dramatists began to build upon the unprecedented success of war reporting on the radio by creating audio documentaries Focusing particularly on the work of radio luminaries such as Edward R. Murrow Fred Friendly Norman Corwin and Erik Barnouw Radio Utopia Postwar Audio Documentary in the Public Interest traces this crucial phase in American radio history significant not only for its timing immediately before television but also because it bridges the gap between the end of the World Wars and the beginning of the Cold War Matthew C. Ehrlich closely examines the production of audio documentaries disseminated by major American commercial broadcast networks CBS NBC and ABC from 1945 to 1951 Audio documentary programs educated Americans about juvenile delinquency slums race relations venereal disease atomic energy arms control and other issues of public interest but they typically stopped short of calling for radical change Drawing on rare recordings and scripts Ehrlich traces a crucial phase in the evolution of news documentary as docudramas featuring actors were supplanted by reality based programs that took advantage of new recording technology Paralleling that shift from drama to realism was a shift in liberal thought from dreams of world peace to uneasy adjustments to a cold war mentality Influenced by corporate competition and government regulations radio programming reflected shifts in a range of political thought that included pacifism liberalism and McCarthyism In showing how programming highlighted contradictions within journalism and documentary Radio Utopia reveals radio s response to the political economic and cultural upheaval of the post war era Radio's America Bruce Lenthall,2008-11-15 Orson Welles s greatest breakthrough into the popular consciousness occurred in 1938 three years before Citizen Kane when his War of the Worlds radio broadcast succeeded so spectacularly that terrified listeners believed they were hearing a genuine report of an alien invasion a landmark in the history of radio s powerful relationship with its audience In Radio s America Bruce Lenthall documents the enormous impact radio had on the lives of Depression era Americans and charts the formative years of our modern mass culture Many Americans became alienated from their government and economy in the twentieth century and Lenthall explains that radio s appeal came from its capability to personalize an increasingly impersonal public arena His depictions of such figures as proto Fascist Charles Coughlin and medical quack John Brinkley offer penetrating insight into radio s use as a persuasive tool and Lenthall s book is unique in its exploration of how ordinary Americans made radio a part of their lives Television inherited radio s cultural role and as the voting tallies for American Idol attest broadcasting continues to occupy a powerfully intimate place in American life Radio s America reveals how the connections between power and mass media began Historical Dictionary of Old Time Radio Robert C. Reinehr,Jon D. Swartz,2007-11-12 The term Old Time Radio refers to the relatively brief period from 1926 when the National Broadcasting Company first began network broadcasting until approximately 1960 when television became the dominant communication medium in the United States During this time radio was as popular and ubiquitous as television is today It was amazingly varied in the types of programming it offered many characters and programs were so popular that virtually everyone was familiar with them Even today recorded versions of these programs are still extremely popular and widely available both from commercial outlets and from hobbyists Behind the production of these programs was a complex technological and financial infrastructure that had to be developed virtually from scratch in a world unaccustomed to the rapid communication and technological marvels that we take for granted today The Historical Dictionary of Old Time Radio provides essential facts and information on the Golden Age of Radio This is accomplished through the use of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the radio networks programs directors producers writers actors radio series and radio stations Entries on your favorite shows The Lone Ranger The Shadow Dragnet and Suspense and actors Bob Hope George Burns Gracie Allen and Edgar Bergen will have you jumping from one entry to the next as you relive old favorites and discover hidden treasures from the Golden Age of Radio The Holiday Makers Richard

K. Popp, 2012-05-16 In mid twentieth century America mass tourism became emblematic of the expanding horizons associated with an affluent industrial society Nowhere was the image of leisurely travel more visible than in the parade of glossy articles and advertisements that beckoned readers from the pages of popular magazines In Richard K Popp s The Holiday Makers the magazine industry serves as a window into postwar media and consumer society showing how the dynamics of market research and commercial print culture helped shape ideas about place mobility and leisure Magazine publishers saw travel content as a way to connect audiences to a booming ad sector while middlebrow editors believed sightseeing travel was a means of fostering a classless society at home and harmony abroad Expanding transportation networks and free time lay at the heart of this idealized vision Holiday magazine heralded nothing less than the dawn of a new era calling it the age of Mobile Man Man gifted for the first time in history with leisure and the means to enjoy distance on a global scale For their part advertisers understood that selling tourism meant turning dreams into action as ad executive David Ogilvy put it Doing so involved everything from countering ugly stereotypes to tapping into desires for authentic places and self actualization Though tourism was publicly touted in egalitarian terms publishers and advertisers privately came to see it as an easy way to segment the elite free spenders from the penny pinching masses Just as importantly marketers identified correlations between an interest in travel and other consumer behavior Ultimately Popp contends the selling of tourism in postwar America played an early integral role in the shift toward lifestyle marketing an experiential service economy and contributed to escalating levels of social inequality The Publishers Weekly ,1902 Pure Act Michael N. McGregor, 2021-05-20 An intimate biography of the avant garde poet and spiritual seeker who abandoned his career to join the circus and live among fishermen in Greece Robert Lax inspired Thomas Merton Jack Kerouac William Maxwell and many others with his quest to live a true life as both an artist and a spiritual seeker Known in Europe as a avant garde poet Lax worked at The New Yorker wrote Hollywood screenplays and edited a Paris literary journal when he wasn t studying philosophy serving the poor in Harlem or living in a sanctuary high in the French Alps Lax called his approach to life pure act a way of living in the moment that was both spontaneous and practiced God inspired and self chosen By devoting himself to simplicity poverty and prayer he expanded his capacity for peace joy and love while producing distinctive poetry of such stark beauty critics called him one of America s greatest experimental poets and one of the new saints of the avant garde Biographer Michael N McGregor met Lax in Greece when he was a young seeker himself He continued to visit him regularly over fifteen years Pure Act is a tale of adventure an exploration of friendship an anthology of wisdom and a testament to the liberating power of living an uncommon life Excellence in Publishing Award Association of Catholic Publishers Honorable Mention Catholic Press Association Book Award Finalist Washington State Book Award Book-news Letter ... Book-of-the-Month Club, 1945
