Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salman

Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing There is an index of names and key terms

Little Shop of Homicide Denise Swanson, 2012-03-06 Dev Sinclair is the happy new owner of the old fashioned shop in her small Missouri town But if she doesn't focus on finding the killer of her ex's fiancé this five and dime owner may find herself serving twenty five to life

Faith in the New Millennium Matthew Avery Sutton, Darren Dochuk, 2015-11-24 The Statue of Liberty depicted on a roadside billboard did not carry her customary torch and tablet Instead she shielded her eyes from words that towered beside her words that highway drivers could not possibly avoid We are no longer a Christian nation Underneath was the name of the man who spoke them the nation's president Barack Obama He had made the original statement Whatever we once were we are no longer a Christian nation at least not just four years earlier Since then those words had appeared in one form or another not just on billboards but in a host of other venues a visible symbol of America's divide over religion and politics In Faith in the New Millennium a group of leading historians explores the shifting role of religion in American politics in the age of Obama shedding new and fascinating light on the interplay of faith and politics Each of the sixteen contributors examines a contemporary issue controversy or policy through a historical lens In an age of the 24 hour news cycle where complexity is often buried under bluster these essays make a powerful case for understanding the stories behind the news They tackle such topics as immigration reform racial turmoil drone wars foreign policy and the unstoppable rise of social media Taken together they reveal how faith is shaping modern America and how modern America is shaping faith

Rhetoric, Materiality, & Politics Barbara A. Biesecker, John Louis Lucaites, 2009 Rhetoric Materiality and Politics explores the relationship between rhetoric's materiality and the social world in the late modern political context Taking as their point of departure a reprint of Michael Calvin McGee's 1982 call to reconceptualize rhetoric as the palpable experience of sociality the authors in this volume grapple anew with the role of communication practices in contemporary collective life Drawing upon the work of Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan and Jacques Derrida these twelve original essays supplement extend and challenge McGee's position collectively advocating on behalf of a shift in theoretical and critical attention from rhetorical materialism to rhetoric's materiality

call Einsteins famous equation $E=MC^2$ incomplete because it does not account for life and death does seem quite extraordinary yet these remain the two greatest mysteries they have ever been denying us thus far a theory of everything Something animates life and departs with death but what this something is not all our science has yet discovered though things like the Large Hadron Collider may provide needed insight and it has been in the pursuit of knowledge about these two greatest mysteries that has compelled me into so many varied academic studies and careers attempting to make sense of the world and our place in it and how people think and deal with the issues of life and death philosophically religiously and politically The things I have discovered along the way compelled me to much research and speculation about these mysteries and how they impact our lives to communicate my thoughts about them to share with others in a daily journal and posted to my website and provided in book format each year These writings are of importance in an increasingly dangerous world with a most uncertain future due to so much corruption ineptitude and lack of accountability in our own government as well as that of others the abject failure of our schools due to the very same things especially the same lack of accountability we find in government the religious and political hatreds with protracted wars worldwide and little to give hope for world peace I believed my articles about these important enough to publish in book format Some years ago I removed from the greater part of society to live in semi seclusion alone with my books and thoughts in a quiet part of the Sequoia National Forest devoting myself to contemplation speculating about many things and committing my thoughts in writing fulltime As a writer and author given to much introspection and fascinated by human behavior nature and our universe it was important to me to simplify my life as much as possible as anyone given to philosophical speculation about many things must That much of my writing covers some metaphysical thoughts about God angels and demons an afterlife and Biblical stories of origins of prophecies of the End Times and so much more have been absorbing studies as well and I freely share my thoughts about these in this volume Heritage Auctions Manuscripts Auction Catalog #6019 Sandra Palomino,2009
