Doing Good J.T.H. Connor,2000-12-15 A history of Toronto s general hospital offers a window on a broader history of Upper Canada and Ontario over the last two centuries In this lively and authoritative account J T H Connor traces the hospital s two hundred year evolution as its mandate to do good forced constant adjustment to changing social medical and government attitudes Doing Good presents the hospital s history in three phases roughly speaking the first and second halves of the nineteenth century and the twentieth century From its conception in 1797 to the mid 1850s it did not actually acquire a home until 1819 nor occupy it until 1829 it functioned as a charitable institution catering to the sick poor It acted initially as a clearing station for sick immigrants it later was deeply affected by political events and became embroiled in the medical turmoil of Toronto in the 1840s and early 1850s In the second era from the mid 1850s it was a public charity receiving stable government funding and constructing a new home in eastern Toronto By the 1870s it was winning praise as a model hospital In the twentieth century it early on established close links with the University of Toronto building a vast and up to date new facility adjacent to the university which opened in 1913 Its international reputation as an academic hospital grew over the decades to include a high profile in research most notably in cancer and medical technology By the 1960s the institution was being run as a public hospital and the late 1990s saw its absorption into a hospital mega corporation the University Health Network along with three other nearby hospitals This work is the most comprehensive analysis of any Canadian hospital or health care institution yet to appear Using trustees minutes medical journals newspapers and government reports along with correspondence photographs and reminiscences of trustees nurses doctors and patients Connor offers acute observation and detailed analysis as well as compelling character studies and revealing anecdotes Broad in scope and meticulously executed Doing Good brings vividly to life the day to day routines the behind the scenes intrigue and the people and politics of a great urban hospital

Phoenix Roderick Stewart, Sharon Stewart, 2011-05-01 Restless dynamic conflicted a surgeon an artist and a writer Norman Bethune was an extraordinary Canadian Brilliant yet erratic Bethune s life was characterized by cycles of achievement and self destruction and his adventurous spirit led him from the operating rooms of Montreal to the battlegrounds of Spain and China In Phoenix The Life of Norman Bethune Roderick and Sharon Stewart provide the intriguing details of Bethune s controversial career as a surgeon his turbulent personal life his passionate crusade to eradicate tuberculosis and his pioneering commitment to the establishment of medicare in Canada They also examine the reasoning that led Bethune to embrace Marxism and show the depth of his faith in the triumph of communism over fascism a commitment that drove him to take risk after risk and ultimately led to his death from an infection caught while performing battlefield surgery in remote northern China Based on extensive research in Canada Spain and China and in depth interviews with Bethune s family friends colleagues and patients Phoenix The Life of Norman Bethune is the definitive Bethune biography for our time

Canadian Health Care and the State Christopher David Naylor, 1992 Canada s state funded health care system is in trouble and fundamental questions are being raised about the connection between medicine and the public sector This collection of historical essays explores diverse aspects of medical care and ideology in their relation to the Canadian state and to parallel institutions such as the military

Red Travellers Andrée Lévesque, 2006-11-03 Corbin s red itinerary began when she joined the Young Communist League in Edmonton She later held party posts across the country through her involvement with The Worker in Toronto a French communist paper in Montreal the Workers Cooperative in Timmins and a lumbermen s strike in Abitibi where she was jailed for taking part in a protest She died of tuberculosis in London Ontario in 1944

Healing the World's Children Cynthia Comacchio, Janet Golden, George Weisz, 2008-06-26 Essays range from historical overviews and historiographic surveys of children s health in various regions of the world to disability and affliction narratives from polio in North American to AIDS orphans in post Apartheid South Africa to interpretations of artistic renderings of sick children that tell us much about medicine family and society at specific times in history

Peopling the North American City Sherry Olson, Patricia Thornton, 2011-06-22 Benefiting from Montreal s remarkable archival records Sherry Olson and Patricia Thornton use an ingenious sampling of twelve surnames to track the comings and goings births deaths and marriages of the city s inhabitants The book demonstrates the importance of individual decisions by outlining the circumstances in which people decided where to move when to marry and what work to do Integrating social and spatial analysis the authors provide insights into the relationships among the city's three cultural communities show how inequalities of voice purchasing power and access to real property were maintained and provide first hand evidence of the impact of city living and poverty on families health and futures The findings challenge presumptions about the cultural assimilation of migrants as well as our understanding of urban life in nineteenth century North America The culmination of twenty five years of work Peopling the North American City is an illuminating look at the humanity of cities and the elements that determine whether their citizens will thrive or merely survive Successful Societies Peter A. Hall, Michèle Lamont, 2009-08-24 Why are some societies more successful than others at promoting individual and collective well being This book integrates recent research in social epidemiology with broader perspectives in social science to explore why some societies are more successful than others at securing population health It explores the social roots of health inequalities arguing that inequalities in health are based not only on economic inequalities but on the structure of social relations It develops sophisticated perspectives on social relations which emphasize the ways in which cultural frameworks as well as institutions condition people's health It reports on research into health inequalities in the developed and developing worlds covering a wide range of national case studies and into the ways in which social relations condition the effectiveness of public policies aimed at improving health Bibliographie de L'histoire de la Médecine, 2000-06-22 A continuation of the first volume published in 1984 Mainly devoted to Canadian medical historical literature published between 1984 and 1998 material dated before 1984 that was not included in volume one is listed and more attention is paid to French language works Lacking annotation the bibliography attempts to gather all published work about medical events or persons from Canada including the former New France British North America and the territories of the Hudson's Bay Colony No effort has been made to describe material locations or to differentiate between good and bad history Canadian card order no C99 932186 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Caring and Curing Dianne Elizabeth Dodd, Deborah Gorham, 1994 This collection of essays takes the reader from the early 19th century struggle between female midwives and male physicians right up to the late 20th century emergence of professionally trained women physicians vying for a place in the medical hierarchy The bitter conflict for control of birthing and other aspects of domestic health care between female lay healers particularly midwives and the emerging male dominated medical profession is examined from new perspectives Published in English Bibliography of the History of Medicine, 1984 Scott, Brandtner, Eveleigh, Webber Esther Trépanier, 2022-10-15 Four artists who are today relatively or almost entirely unknown one woman and three men nevertheless played a part in the aesthetic upheavals that led to abstraction in 1940s Montreal Very active in the art milieu throughout the decade Marian Dale Scott Fritz Brandtner Henry Eveleigh and Gordon Webber captured the attention of critics of the time who employed the term abstract art to describe both non objective works and bold formal explorations that retained some reference to visible reality An examination of these artists practices reveals a remarkable openness to international contemporary art trends French German British and American Their work and its critical reception conjure a complex picture of the debates on abstraction that took place in Montreal during the 1940s so often reduced to the controversies surrounding the emergence of the Automatiste movement The artistic innovations of Paul mile Borduas and his group and the radical tone of their 1948 manifesto Refus global cemented their status as Quebec s abstract avant garde but also had the effect of eclipsing other visions of abstraction being explored during the same period This book reinstates the oeuvres of these forgotten protagonists in the narrative of abstract art illustrating how their practices encompassed a variety of themes emotion science human experience in the broadest sense but also as the Second World War unfolded the violence that marked their era

In the Eye of the China Storm Paul T.K. Lin, Eileen Chen Lin, 2011-08-04 Born in Vancouver in 1920 to immigrant parents Lin became a passionate advocate for China while attending university in the United States With the establishment of the People s Republic and growing Cold War sentiment Lin abandoned his doctoral studies moving to China with his wife and two young sons He spent the next fifteen years participating in the country s revolutionary transformation In 1964 concerned by the political climate under Mao and determined to bridge the growing divide between China and the West Lin returned to Canada with his family and was appointed head of McGill University s Centre for East Asian Studies Throughout his distinguished career Lin was sought after as an authority on China His commitment to building bridges between China and the West contributed to the establishment of diplomatic relations between Canada and China in 1970 to US President Richard Nixon s visit to China in 1972 and to the creation of numerous cultural academic and trade exchanges In the Eye of the China Storm is the story of Paul Lin s life and of his efforts as a scholar teacher business consultant and community leader to overcome the mutual suspicion that distanced China from the West A proud patriot he was devastated by the Chinese government s violent suppression of student protestors at Tiananmen Square in June 1989 but never lost faith in the Chinese people nor hope for China s bright future
