Wisdom From World Religions John Marks Templeton, 2008-01-01 Every religion acknowledges certain spiritual principles and records them in its sacred literature and traditions. This book curates these ancient teachings and shows how they apply to modern life with the help of parables, quotations, and commentaries. By reading Wisdom from World Religions, people from all walks of life will be inspired to pursue their own spiritual growth and to contemplate questions central to our existence, such as how through love and creativity can we be agents of divinity on earth. Worldwide Worship John Marks Templeton, 2008-01-01 Drawn from classical and religious texts as well as the work of poets and other artists, Worldwide Worship is a unique celebration of worship found in many religious traditions. These selections have been chosen singularly and as a group by John Marks Templeton not only for their individual aesthetic beauty but also to assist us in learning various lessons of life. From this rich mixture of prayer, song, and poetry comes a confirmation of the life-affirming universality of the human spirit. Together, these works celebrate the universal principles found in the human mind and attempt to bridge the gaps between religions, cultures, and peoples of the world. Stories to Comfort the Soul Guideposts, 2008-02 Collected in this volume are over sixty heartwarming stories about hope and comfort. These are stories of people who have faced adversity and who have often been surprised by the hope that can spring, sometimes unexpectedly, from even the darkest of situations. The stories are often warm and inspiring, sometimes humorous or sad, but always about love, peace, faith, and hope. The majority of the stories are drawn from the archives of Guideposts magazine, long known for its moving first-person stories. Also included are writings from Annette Funicello, Michael J. Fox, Christopher Reeve, Corrie Ten Boom, and other amazing people. These testimonies will encourage and inspire the reader in their own life's journey.
