1974 Excavations at the Ewell III Site (40CF118), Jernigan II Site (40CF37) and the Parks Site (40CF5) Charles H. Faulkner, Major C. R. McCollough, 1982      Histories of Southeastern Archaeology Shannon Tushingham, Jane Hill, Charles H. McNutt, 2002-03-18 This volume provides a comprehensive broad based overview including first person accounts of the development and conduct of archaeology in the Southeast over the past three decades Histories of Southeastern Archaeology originated as a symposium at the 1999 Southeastern Archaeological Conference SEAC organized in honor of the retirement of Charles H McNutt following 30 years of teaching anthropology Written for the most part by members of the first post depression generation of southeastern archaeologists this volume offers a window not only into the archaeological past of the United States but also into the hopes and despairs of archaeologists who worked to write that unrecorded history or to test scientific theories concerning culture The contributors take different approaches each guided by experience personality and location as well as by the legislation that shaped the practical conduct of archaeology in their area Despite the state by state approach there are certain common themes such as the effect or lack thereof of changing theory in Americanist archaeology the explosion of contract archaeology and its relationship to academic archaeology goals achieved or not achieved and the common ground of SEAC This book tells us how we learned what we now know about the Southeast s unwritten past Of obvious interest to professionals and students of the field this volume will also be sought after by historians political scientists amateurs and anyone interested in the South Additional reviews A unique publication that presents numerous historical topical and personal perspectives on the archaeological heritage of the Southeast Southeastern Archaeology      TVA Archaeology Erin E. Pritchard, 2009 Since its inception in 1933 the Tennessee Valley Authority has played a dual role as federal agency and steward of the Tennessee River Valley While known to most people today as an energy provider the agency is also charged with managing and protecting the nation s fifth largest river system the Tennessee River and vast tracts of land and resources encompassing Tennessee and portions of Alabama Georgia Kentucky Mississippi North Carolina and Virginia Included in TVA s mandate is the preservation of the archaeological record of the valley s prehistoric peoples a record that would have been forever lost beneath floodwaters had TVA not demonstrated a commitment to minimize its impact on the valley and sought to protect its archaeological resources In TVA Archaeology fourteen contributors who have worked with TVA in its conservation effort discuss prehistoric excavations conducted at Tellico Normandy Jonathan s Creek and many other sites They explore TVA s role in the excavations and how the agency facilitated prehistoric investigations along proposed dam sites They also delve into the history of TVA as it grew from a New Deal program to a federal corporation and reveal how during the agency s formative years the TVA board responded to prodding from archaeologists David DeJarnette and William Webb and molded TVA into the steward of a region it is today TVA remains a mainstay of progress and conservation within an important region of the United States and its safeguarding of the valley's prehistory cements its legacy as more than just an energy supplier. Students and researchers interested in prehistoric archaeology of the Tennessee Valley and the history of TVA will find this volume an invaluable contribution to the study of the region. Erin E. Pritchard is an archaeologist with the Tennessee Valley Authority. Her work includes multiple archaeological site investigations, most notably Dust Cave in northern Alabama, and she has authored and coauthored numerous site reports for TVA.
